Dear Mother: —

Yesterday, I spent
in Philadelphia buying
a few Christmas presents.
I bought a silver spoon
for Mary Cameron at Bailey Brooks & Biddle. They are going to put her name
on it and send it out
to me.

Before I went into the city, I received Father's

letter and my report;
after I came back I rec'd a letter from Eleanor.

If Virginia would go home by the way of Philadelphia, I could come with her and then I would not have to come
for me. I will ask Mr.
Richards what time I
can go on before mailing this letter. I think I shall better make up
Saturday before coming home as school does not close until 2 o'clock Friday the 18th and if I tried to come on the evening train Friday I would miss some of my lessons. If any one caring for me they should be here Friday afternoon the 18th. I can come alone as please do not think that I will have to come. It would be very pleasant for me to have him with me but if he is busy or if he does not want to come

please do not ask him.
I think I would be willing to come for me. I will write to her to-day.

We drove & met this A.M.
before breakfast. Sunday morning we have
breakfast at half past-eight - but I always wake up as early as I do on such days.

This morning at-
breakfast they told us that - Miss Dobson was dead. She had been very sick for two years and has been at the German town hospital

for a long time. The funeral is to be in
I am at the Episcopal church.

I have been to church and am visiting
this while I wait - for dinner.

I will be home
on Mon. & if nothing
happens Saturday the 19th

It is quite soon to write
of my coming but - if I can come for me
he will want - to know
as to make his plans.

I will write a short
note to V. asking her
when she intends to go home. Clara Brundage
who lives near Philbur-Bane will go on the same train as I can come alone.

I think I shall need
about five dollars -

I am sorry to have to leave you with nothing
at to me the mileage
can be sent with the money.

I am well and
send love to you all.

Yours aff. daughter,
Georgina Miller
