

On Train Nov 5

Dear Father, Jan'y 4, 1892.

Forgive and excuse
but me up the train at day - and I have been making ever since. I have been well not on the train unless she is in the other car.

When I arrive at the station I will send a telegram to you and
that will be all right.
I hope I am arriving
through the air and I wonder if it must be quite cold outside.
I am at the S & B Junction
so will get this ready to be mailed at New Haven.
With love to all
your aff'ly daughter, George.
