Dear Mother: - January 10, 1892.

In the morning yesterday I went to the Station with Lucy who was going into the city and then through to Meira Street with Carrie Childs and Mademoiselle Durr. Carrie wished to see share a few things and asked me to go with her. As I couldn't all the exercise I could get I went with her.

In the afternoon six of us and Mollie went for a sleigh-ride. We drove through Harrison Park and up to Chestnut Hill

Wayne Street and met me.
The singing was quite good especially in the Park.
The singing there must be beautiful in the summer.

here takes advantage of the summer.
Then I returned I will
a lovely letter from Clemon.
I suppose I need not tell anything she could be intelligently be intelligent a satisfactory letter also?
I am looking forward to the arrival of my friends.

I was very happy last to church this morning I missed the lungs and it seemed as though after missing my cousin me.

Dear Brundage has not returned yet. She has traveled and I suppose will not be back, if at all for a long time.

Monday January 11, 1892,

Dear Mother:-

After finishing your letter I took a long nap then after getting thoroughly awake I read a letter to Clara.
Then saved for supper after which we had Bible School. We were excused from the latter at ten minutes of eight and then we all or most of us went to sing in her place
McLeary and Jessie
Dana were there.

very purple, fainter in church this morning and they had to carry her out. She has been sick lately and has not been to school.
She is about eight years old.

The afternoon I was visiting when the dinner bell rang and then just came up I from a turkey dinner which was very good.

Now I am going to bed.

With love to you all.

were both in bed - all day yesterday. Then I went to bed and now I am dressed waiting for the breakfast bell to ring.

Please tell Father that I enclose No. 5 & 9's mail at the same time.

With love to all

Your affe. daughter Georgia Hilles.
