Dear Father:-

Your letter containing one from Mr. Cameron was received with my report this afternoon. I have read Mr. C's letter and will send it to you with this. I will leave my going to Arizona with you and Mother and would like to know what you and the rest of the family think before expressing my opinion.

I will write nothing about it unless she writes about it first. I thought I write Mary's name but after reading it see that I left it out.

You will no doubt receive Mrs. Richards' bill in a few days but there is no necessity to send the draft until she sends the bill.

I have taken these few minutes from study hour in which to write this so must stop now.

With love to all from Your loving daughter
Georgia Welles.

Tuesday morning.

I've been thinking about G. H. N. Stone ever since I woke up. Please tell Eleanor and the other nurses to be careful and not let him fall down stairs. I would like nothing better than to take care of him all the time. The first part of this letter was written in the school-room and with a special kind of pen that Mr.
Fulz, the writing teacher, has us used. That accounts for the difference. Love to all.
Georgia Welles.
