and Ena are coming to Chila.

My mother is on the side of the house facing the road and I can see the little children going to Sunday School. Most of the children were Sunday School in the afternoon.

Left Lima Thursday
and each girl has to do something to earn money. I have not decided what I shall do.
Every says she will pay for measuring her stockings.

Dear Mother

Last evening we went to the reception
given by Mr. and Mrs.
Miller and had a pleasant time. I am rather sleepy to-day as will not make as
long a letter as usual.
I remind thee
letters yesterday. One from each sister I am willing, as you

suggested, to wait until Easter before deciding about the Arizona trip
Easter vacation begins
April 8th and school
closes June the 3rd Margaret said I'm
and she was coming
to see me either next Saturday or the Saturday
following.
He attended the Confirmation service

This morning. About thirty fine new suits had different patterns of the school taken to put in the catalogue yesterday.

It has turned cold again and small flocks of snow are falling through the air
I am so glad Margaret

as I undoubtedly will do that for one thing.

Mr. Miller and his wife are very fine
innocence. He sings bravely and she plays as well as he sings. He told Mrs.
Richards when the latter was coming from the reception or rather
was looking thru good night - that her young ladies had learned their manner. Their daughter is one of the very prettiest.

I noticed by the
five notes that Mr.
G. R. Corryd was married to a Miss Black of Hilder-Barne.

I am glad you
are able to be down
again.

Don't forget bye for this time. I think I need my afternoon walk to-day.

Think love to you and all from,
Your affectionate daughter,
Margaret Foster
