

Hubert Lane School.

March 8th 1892.

Dear Father:

Your letter has been received and as I have a few spare minutes I will write you
a short note.

It has been raining all day and does not seem to be the least the spring weather we had yesterday.

I received a letter from Mary Cameron in this afternoon mail. In reply to the question whether her grand mother would return with us if she accompany us to

Philadelphia March 11/1892

Mr. G. H. Welles,

Wyandung,

Bradford Co.,

Pennsylvania.

Georgia Stokes to Father
George H. Welles

March 8, 1892

Wednesday Mary said that Mr. Smith, old thought, would come back when and did.
Mia school closed about the 22nd June and M. & S. closed the 3rd.

John arriving there in to be a lecture for Stanley's hands in Africa. I had not decided about going yet.

I received a letter from Charles Graft who said that her father had been sick in bed for a week. He first time in forty years.
Patti says, her father

next Monday after-noon.
She must have the changeable mind about her conduct as I need to have about going to church. I have some time you would ask me if I was going to church and I said no and in ten minutes I had changed my mind. could not young.

Mrs. Richards has given me a book - case which adds a great deal to the books of my room.
The lecture & construction is to be in the music room and the proceeds for the benefit of a summer
hospital.

Love good bye for this time.

With love to you and all your affectionate daughter Suzanne Holten.
