

Hadest Lane School.

March 20, 1892.

Dear Virginia -

After making the letter to Mother, I was sitting in the school-room when Miss Merrill, the Latin teacher, passed through and asked me to take a walk. Of course, I accepted and soon found myself in near the Houshannon. We returned about twelve o'clock having had a pleasant time.

Most of the girls went into Philadelphia and after supper four of us, Mary Hessy, Carrie Childs, Grace McLenny and myself wanted something to do. We went out in the music room and one of the girls commu-ed playing Mrs. McLeod's "Wedding March" and then we thought of having a making up we decided to have help in the trade and Carrie in the gown. Mary was the musician and I played the march. Everything ready we arrived Mrs. Richards, the lunches and the girls (who were late) to the making up.

Every one said it was splendid.

This morning we attended church.

Lucy is in the city so I feel rather lonely.

Therefore you are probably meeting in the "Caligraph" we give not if

I received a very nice letter from Eleanor yesterday. She was half English and half French.

Now good bye for this time
Love to all.
