

Georgia Wells
& mother

Laura Sloat Wells

May 19, 1892

Hahut Lane School

May 19, 1892.

Dear Mother

Both skirts, which came yesterday, hang nicely and I am particularly pleased with the challenge. The belt to the latter is pretty. Who made it?

I have had but one gingham dress on as yet and that I kept on only an hour.

It has been raining and the atmosphere seems much cooler.

This last half hour I've been in the large class room. It is most time for the big ball to ring and then we shall go down to dinner and then get our mail.

Mrs. Over was not at the cooking class yesterday.
She has been here but once this year. I heard one of the teachers say that she thought Mrs. Over might manage to come when she was engaged a year ahead of time. The lady who comes in her place is very pleasant but I would rather have the "Queen of the Kitchen" herself.

I asked the teacher
what kind of baking powder
she used and she said
"I like Cleveland's here." I saw and knew before that Mrs. Over was touchy on that question and that is

Her assistant is. When I was home I saw an article in one of the papers by Miss Bour. She said she had never put her name to a Royal Baking Powder advertisement and liked the C better.

The above I wrote in school and now we have had dinner and the mail has been distributed.

This morning my room received its weekly sweeping and I wish you could stop in and make a call. You would find everything very clean and sweet.

It continues to rain. As I said before these are our April showers.

I suppose Eleanor will expect a letter from me to-morrow so will write it now.

With many thanks for the skirts and shawl and love to you all

Your loving daughter Georgia Walker.

P.S. I have a "trade last" or in other words a ~~ct~~ compliment for Virginia. I shall be very much pleased to ^{have} the opportunity to tell it. Saturday June 4th at six o'clock.

G.W.