October 1st 1892

Dear Father -

Your letter and one from Virginia came this morning. Carrie Childs and I went into the city at 8:42 and just came back a few minutes ago. Now we are both in the school-room writing letters.

After purchasing a watch that I had mentioned other things I paid I there thirty seven dollars remaining to buy a coat. For that reason I fear I shall need more money before Christmas. I am proud to have to spend so much the match and chalcain cost $23.75. The salesman said it was the best silver match they had for keeping good shape.

I enjoy my room
much better than the one I occupied last year. It has the furniture and is on the north side of the house. It is the only double room that is to be found in a single room. There are to be thirty boarders instead of twenty which we had last year. I

I went with Conie to call on one of the friends who attends the Knickerbocker School.

It is the same price as Hobart Lane but not near as pleasant.
It is on one of the finest streets

Conie and I return to N.Y.S. more contented.

 sights of the city. They saw

 As I edited before I have very comfortable quarters and plenty of room which must that while have not been.
 This seems natural and I felt at home again. I have not seen one of the sick girl as yet. About to-morrow I expect to see some of the new girls with long faces.

I miss Little Peggy and I wish I could bring him here in my trunk. He would be the pet of the school. As it is I received a call from a large tiger cat.
He did not stay long because I have no particular liking for cats.

I have decided to take music lessons which will add quite a sum to my school bill. I am to take a trilling 2 men and I think I shall like her very much.

I am not preparing for college and am going to take my own studies.
