October 16, 1892.

Dear Mother:-

A letter from Father came Friday - and the papers were received yesterday.

I am so glad that the time had the privilege of being Indiana's. You remember they had nothing - except when they had such bad weather. If all were found in the manner appeared in the Review, it must have been quite a family gathering.

Yesterday, I went into the city to look at coats. I was there they inform me that the three quarters are in all

They are selling and there in high material. At Darlington's they had quite a pretty light three quarter coat trimmed in fur, for $25.00. At Hamaad's they had the same style ^{for $11.00} coat, only in a darker shade for at Stewart's & Clothier, they said they should have it then long coats by Saturday the 22nd the other trip over. I & H. said they were selling nothing but long coats for $10.00 only each. At a different store for me to decide what I want, for some reason I would like a long coat best.
We made me have the 21st as a holiday. That will give me ^{7th} Friday and Saturday free. One of my sons I suppose I will spend in Philadelphia, trying to get something to suit me.

I wish you, Virginia or Margaret could see the coat. I hesitate about buying a three quarter one because my shoes are not to the floor. I do not want to look bad. Then I think I shall prefer a dark coat either a jacket or long.

At Darlington's they said they could make my ^{dark blue} coat three quarter coat) to order for $32.00. Hamaad has were the three quarter coats already made.

What shall I do?

Tell Eleanor that I am wasting coats for children and ask her if she would like me to buy one for the baby. I think I could decide that much better than one for myself.

Sunday Sept. 28th.

The above I wrote this morning and now I will finish this letter.

We attended church and heard Gen. Spaulding of San Francisco preach of the summer man good except the delivery.

It was all I could do to keep from laughing out loud.

It was too warm out for a very dark dress, therefore, I wore my flannel trimmed with lace. My blue hat which I purchased in the city goes well with both of my blue dresses.

In a package which came from Mrs. Sagan, I received my blue jacket a coral waist and a dear breakfast jacket. The total was $5. He make it? It is very pretty.
I shall write to Miss

Sagan as well as I have there.

The light coats are more stylish than the dark but I can not decide what to do. I am afraid that it will be impossible for me to get a long coat.
All the stores refuse to have plenty of coats for girls I thought. Every long coat that I tried for was too small for me.
I think that maybe I could get a pretty light brown, well buttoned light and dark brown, or Havanahere. There was one there yesterday which fitted me beautifully but I de-cided to write to you to see if you will do me a favor and send me $30.00 in a three quarter jacket because next year they will be wearing some different style. The long jacket I mentioned before was $17.00

Please have Margaret write me what you all think.

I am such pretty things for little children. Little white coats trimmed in fur. I felt like stepping in the snow and buying a full winter outfit for my three nephews.

The fur is so beautiful and this hat was a perfect

Fall day.

We had our usual dinner of chicken and ice-cream.

My thoughts seem to be wandering, I wish I talk of casts, then the weather and then dinner, then a new subject.

I will raise the accounts of the wedding. I am very to hand mixed remy Elton and Thomas ask as bridesmaids - I hope to hear a minute description when I come home Christmas. That will be the ⁽⁵⁾ wedding from to-day. Mrs. Richards has not decided what day school will close for vacation.

I am well and enjoying school. Miss Tucker said that I had my room fixed up very prettily. I sat near her at dinner.

Very good-bye for to-day.
I hope to have a letter from Sydney before Saturday as I wish to go to Tulsa then to decide on my coat.

Love to all your loving daughter Margaret Walker.
