Dear Mother, -

The week passed quickly and Sunday is here again. I enjoy it more than any body and wish it could come twice instead of once a week.
This morning, we attended St. Peter as usual. Dr.
Hammy preached a very good sermon.
We have had our chicken dinner - followed by

we cannot and now everything is quiet.

I must tell you
what I did yesterday.
I packed from eight
until nine in the parlor.
Then to ten, we had sewing hour after which, I went down on Main Street with Sister Worthington after some cards she had ^{ordered} engraved.
When we came back we bumped to go to the city. After lunch we took the 11 train for the city and arrived there in time to get to the matinee. Ada Cochran Lottie Worthington Miss Thompson and I comprised the party.

Wodgesha was "splendid!"
as Ada says. Of course she looks much older than the picture we have of her.
It is impossible, when you see her shopping around, to realize that she is over fifty.

As for Lottie she is much a pretty play and I intended to read it the first chance I get.
Our good time did not end in the afternoon because we had a great treat in store for us although we did not know it. By that I mean we had no idea of having as good a time as we had in the evening.

I met Pearl Sunday
that the "Lotos Club" made to sing and they did.
I never enjoyed singing any more than I did last night.
The club was accompanied by a rector. The house on the program, which shall include, as Miss Minnie Marshall told me August she was married. As the conductor Mr. Smith. He thinks we did make as many humor her by that. After the entertainment she was introduced as Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Richards gave her several refreshments of homemade and ice cream.
I wore my yellow gown
and was talked for me of the ball gown. A lady came up to me and said "I enjoyed the evening very much but I believe I would rather have one like last year when you sang. All course I explained to her the mistake and she said "Haven't you here last year"? I replied "Yes but you have mistaken me for Miss Hall".

The young people were invited to the musical.

Oh you three men - are you young men with high hair. The pedestrian are favored among us

many gray haired persons.
I believe the three ~~men~~ the only members of the club - that men will never ~~there~~ men in great demand. The most among a little more concited than he was.

I shall always in my description of the musical refer to your three sons to all.

Your affectionate daughter
Georgia Holmes.
