

Wagont Lane School.
November 15, 1892.

Dear Father, -

Many thanks for the two letters which I have read this morn. The one written at Quabone came, I suppose, in the morning mail but of course I did not see it until two o'clock.

I wonder if it is raining as hard at Hingham as it is here. The old brook from our road walk in against it.

I received an announcement from Mrs. Eagan and now she may be found at 1310 7. Street, N. Y. instead of Joranda. The ladies of Wagont Lane Nov 15/92

Replies Nov 16/92

Wells,
Hingham,
Barnstable County,
Barnstable.

Georgia Wells to father
George H. Wells

Nov. 15, 1892

the latter place will miss her greatly and especially when there is to be a wedding.
Yes, the Rosset came out the latter-morn mail Friday.
It did not contain any more than usual.
This morning I was wondering if Margaret had returned from Birmingham.
Just opening, there was a grand demonstrative parade on Main Street. I did not see it but heard some of the day scholars talking about it.
The Rosset seems to think that Mr. Tolson will be an most potent factor. I feel rather sorry for the present one.
Mrs. Richards went to

New York City this morning to see her mother who is packing for the past. I think Mrs. A. would like to have her Smith here but of course, this is not the place for invalids.
Must make this now.

Love to all.
Your loving daughter,
Angie Foster.