

Habniet Lane School.

December 7, 1892.

Dear Mother, -

Margaret's letter came last evening and I am glad that you and she are at last in a good place to stop.

I thought my Jim-Limo
parents and failed to find anything for "tail craft".
One of the new books is "One and I by Curtis and I bought it for Virginia. Another good book is "Baby Miller".
I do not know the name of

Dec 7/1892
Georgia

Mrs. George H. Helms
St. Denis Hotel, Broadway 11 St.
New York City.

Georgia Wells

& mother

Laura West Wells

Dec 7, 1892

the author. I did not have time to look at it. "One and I" is the favorite probably because critics did so readily.

To-morrow morning I am going to the wedding reception.
I understand it is to 17 Longways.

Do not bother about any Christmas presents for me.
Yes, you may get me some ambrosia eating paper.

Buy yourself something
nice and keep well.

I am glad that you have a nice room on the first floor.

I'm back part time.

Love to you and Mr.

Your loving daughter,
Margaret