

Harriet-Love School.

December 11, 1892.

Dear Father, -

To-day, I will write
my Sunday letter to you.
This morning we attended church as usual and when the bell rang for all the girls to go to their own rooms had a quiet afternoon. We have had no dinner of chicken and we crack and now feel like being still.

Thursday morning, I attended the Wednesday at Nine o'clock Sabbath and Mr. Edward Graham.

I imagine that the wedding must have been very pretty because when we printed the bride looked as pretty as I had ever seen her.
The house was beautifully decorated with palm fronds and moss. The presents were pretty and cheerful.
The H. & S. I give were much appreciated but only three most the three did not give any present - as we thought it was unnecessary. Miss Submative graduated from H. & S. in June 1891 and Mrs. Richards had her call at Goredale to tell us about the school and that is the reason I was invited to the reception.
The Father's present is to be a furnished house. I consider it a very acceptable gift.

Each evening I received a very nice letter from Eleanor. I am so glad that they are to be in a house of their own. Can anyone be so very wonderful except I know he has surprised in three months.

Does it seem possible that I have been here almost three months? I shall be exceedingly glad to have a rest from study.
Many thanks for the letter and this table. It is probable that I shall come on No. 7 although I have said nothing to Mrs. Richards about it yet.

feel quite certain that she will have no objection to my concerning on that train.

Friday I received a note from Margaret. Mother and Mr. are having a nice trip. I suppose they will go home this week. But they had say anything about it.
The stock in New York City must be very badly at this time of the year. I should like to be there for a few days, Chile. So not a nice a place to stop. About the only good store in Washington.
That you buy there pay for. But it is always good.
Washington is crowded from morning until night with many descriptions of humanity.

Thurs. stop visiting now.

Love to you and all at Grandale.

Your affectionate daughter,

Georgia Willard.
