

Frederick Lane School

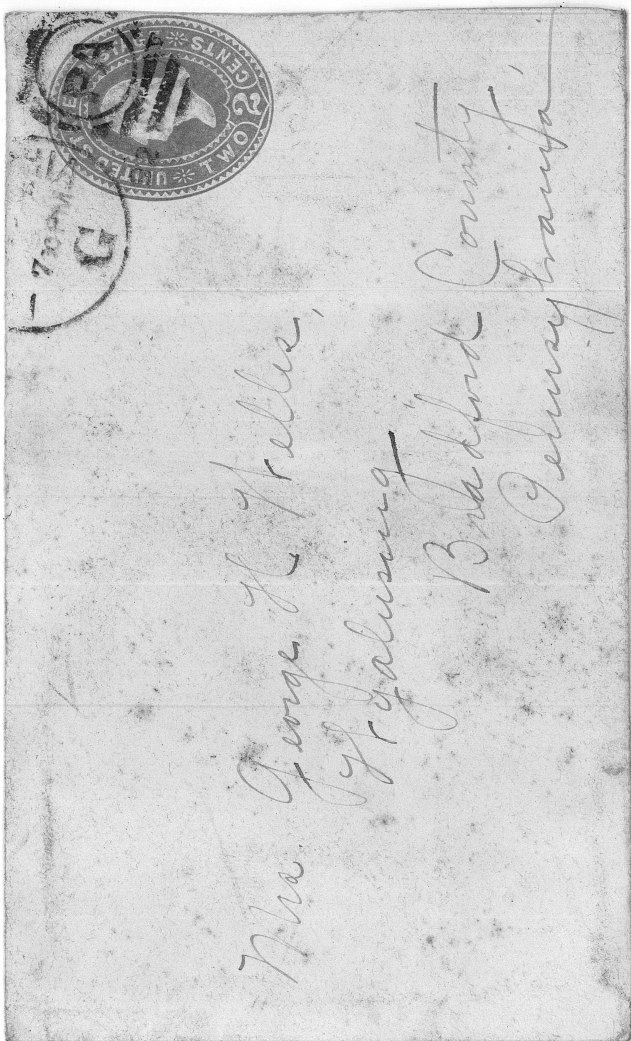

December 14, 1892.

Dear Mother,

Monday morning
I sent a note to you the New York but suppose you did not receive it.

I am glad that you arrived home safely
and hope you are making the most of the trip.
A nice note from Father was received this afternoon.

May Cousin is in Washington again. I have

Georgia Heller

received the letter from her this week. She spent thoroughly in Lima and arrived in Washington the 6th.

Mrs. Richards says I may take the 12:12 from Wagon Junction and if nothing happens I hope to see you all on Saturday at 8:45 A.M. Probably when here last night to see about tickets and baggage and I felt quite badly when I said one thought for Wagon Junction.

Probably, I shall not write again before coming home. I am very busy. In morning, I have a consultation in the literature of Rome under Augustine. Friday, a matter known in American history in McLean and Sulla. Most study. Love to all.

Your loving daughter
Ginger Miller
