Dear Mother -
After a pleasant journey, I arrived here at half past six. The train was about thirty minutes late but I was in time for dinner. My trunk came while we were having dinner and then Ruth Broome helped me unpack it.
Miss Bartlett the new teacher is to have Miss Luck's old room and Miss J. is to take Miss Isaac's former room. I have not met Miss B. but caught a glimpse of her.
Ask Margaret if I left my jewelry box at home. I have not forgotten it among my belonging. so think it is at Good-bye.

Mrs. Richards seemed pleased that I looked so well.

Must get my Latin Prose lesson
so good-bye for to-day.

Love to all.

Your affe. daughter
Georgina Keller.
