Theodore, called Ted, attended school in Leopold and helped his father and brothers on the family farm. Ted was only 7 years old when his mother, Catherine died and he stayed on the farm with his father and older brothers. Several years later, his father Theodore was married to Annie Schreckenbergs, sister of Ted's deceased mother.

Ted lived with his brother John for a period before his marriage.

Around 1919, Ted married a girl from Benton, Mo., Olivia Glastetter. Olivia was born 16 Dec 1897. Ted and Olivia lived their lives and raised their family in the Leopold/Chaffee area. Ted started farming with horses and plows. He would walk in the furrows.

On hog killing day, the women got together and made blood sausage, liver sausage, and head cheese.

BARBARA HINKEBEIN

Barbara was born 20 Jan 1891 in Leopold, Missouri. She was baptized "Barbaram Mariam" on 21 Jan 1891. Her baptismal sponsors were Meinard Hinkebein and Mary Eldracher. She was baptized by Father Francis Bettles.

When Barbara was only five years old, her mother died. She went to live with her mother's sister Anne in the home of her grandparents, George and Barbara Schreckenberg.

Several years later, Barbara's father, Theodore, married her aunt Annie Schreckenberg and the family was reunited.

Barbara became a school teacher in 1910. At that time, a young lady from the Leopold community was hired each year to teach the lower grades in school. Mr. Bernard Hotze was principal and taught the older grades. Several years later, Barbara was hired to work in the Hulshof Store in Leopold, which was owned by Anton Hulshof.

Barbara was married to Henry Seesing on 14 Apr 1915. He was also from the Leopold community and attended church there. His parents, John and Hendricka Seesing, had immigrated from Holland and settled on a farm a few miles north of Leopold. Henry was born 01 Aug 1889.

The newly married couple bought a farm neighboring his parents with several acres of good bottom land along Crooked Creek. In 1934, Barbara and Henry built a new house on the farm and lived there until Jan 1947.

Henry and Barbara bought the Hinkebein farm from the heirs, as no one was living on it any longer and they then traded the farm and few farm animals to John Wubker and his wife Dina for the store building the Wubkers owned in Leopold.

Before Barbara and Henry could open a tavern in Leopold, they had to obtain permission from the parish priest. They were able to get permission based on the argument that a tavern in town would keep the young people at home.

Henry and Barbara remodeled the store building and put in a café and tavern with the name of 'SEESINGS CAFÉ". The held dances each weekend and large crowds would come from all around. This was before and during World War II. Draft beer sold for 10 cents a glass and 5 cents for a smaller mug. Soda sold for 5 cents a bottle.

Wedding dances, including their children's were held at the café. Before they moved to Leopold in 1947, Henry hired someone to run the store during the week and then he and Barbara would help on weekends.

After the move, they ran it themselves. They had living quarters in the same building with bedrooms upstairs and the kitchen and dining area downstairs, behind the tavern.

In 1963, Barbara and Henry bought a house at the west end of Main Street from Ed Elfrink and they retired, selling the tavern to Joe Carlisle.

JOSEPH HINKEEBEIN

Joe Hinkebein and Hendricka (Seesing) Hinkebein

Joseph was born in Leopold on 25 March 1895. His baptism took place at St. John's Catholic Church on 26 Mar 1895. Sponsored by Gerhard Vandeven and Mary Lubbus, he was baptized "Wilhelmum Joseph".

He was the last child of Catherine Schreckenberg Hinkebein as Catherine died when he was but 18 months old.

Joseph and his sisters Anna May and Barbara, (ten and five years old), went to live with their Aunt Anne Schreckenberg after the death of their mother in 1896.

In 1900, their father Theodore married Anne and the family again resided on the Hinkebein place together.

Joseph learned farming and was also very talented at working with wood. There are several family heirlooms that he carved that still remain in the family. A rocking horse that was carved by Joe stayed on the porch at Theodore's home for all the nieces and nephews to play with.

Joe lived in Chaffee before he was married and worked as a blacksmith helper for the Frisco Railroad.

On the 7th of Jul 1926, he married Hendrika Hermina Seesing, who was the sister of Henry Seesing, Joe's sisters husband. Hendrika was born 19 Jul 1898.

Joe and Hendrika resided in Chaffee, Missouri until after the birth of their first child.

They then moved to a farm in Leopold. Joe worked on the farm raising crops. As a sideline, he raised tobacco and peanuts.

CATHERINE ADELE HINKEBEIN

Catherine was born 14 Dec 1901 in Leopold, Mo. She was the first child of Anne Schreckenbergs and Theodore Hinkebein.

On 15 Dec 1901, sponsored by John and Ann Schreckenbergs (n.Niebur), she was baptized "Catharinam Adelheidam". She was named after Theodore's first wife.

She attended school in Leopold and helped with the large family. During her life, she was known as "Kate".

About 1927, she married Theodore J. Peters, who was born 18 Mar 1902 in Leopold Mo. He was baptized at St. John's Catholic Church in Leopold.

She was a very religious woman and a gracious hostess. She always prepared large meals for whoever came. Tradition has it that one time when a large group came to visit, Kate gave up her bed to the visitors and she slept on the kitchen table.

After Bernice entered the convent, it was a pleasure for her to have the nuns come to visit.

Theodore "Ted" Peters, in addition to farming, traveled the country side threshing wheat. He also ran the sawmill.

Theodore and Catherine lived their lives around the Leopold area.

Ted passed away 07 Jan 1960 and Kate, at the age of 80, on 21 June 1982 of heart disease.

An article written about Katie Peters ,upon her death, reads:

"Mrs. Katie Peters dies - Mrs. Catherine Adele (Katie) Peters, who was a lifelong inspiration here to her community and to her nine children, died just after midnight Sunday morning, June 20, 1982 in Chaffee General Hospital after a brief illness. She was 80 years old.

Mrs. Peters was well known and respected for her never-failing high spirits, determination and character. Two years ago, even though she was confined to a wheelchair, she went on a trip to Iowa to see Pope John Paul II on his visit here.

She always had wanted to go to Rome for the customary audience with the Pope at the Vatican, and she said afterwards that her trip to Iowa was one way to make up for the trip she had always wanted to make.

Mrs. Peters was a lifelong resident of the Leopold-Laflin area. She was born Dec 14, 1901 on a farm between Leopold and Laflin. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hinkebein of Leopold.

She had nine children, 29 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Mrs. Peters kept newspaper stories about her children and grandchildren and tried to collect as many pictures of her grandchildren as possible.

She was a member of St. John's Church, St. Ann's Ladies Sodality, an auxiliary member of the Legion of Mary and a member of Pro-Life.

The rosary was recited by Council 5898 of the Knights of Columbus at Baker Funeral Home Tuesday night, with the parish rosary recited there Wednesday night.

The funeral Mass was to be held Thursday, June 24, at St. John's Catholic Church starting at 11 a.m., conducted by Father Steve Schneider. Burial will be in St. John's Parish Cemetery at Leopold.

Survivors include a brother, Matthew Hinkebein of Joliet, Ill; nine children, F.X. Peters, owner of Peters Supply and Twin City Materials in Lutesville; Ambrose, postmaster of Leopold; Sister Marie Ambrose, (Bernice), School sisters of Notre Dame and principal of Immaculate Heart School in South St. Louis; Margie Ann (Mrs. August) Eftink, Pro-Life chairman for Bollinger County; Januar Peters, Bollinger County Sheriff; Matthew Peters, supervisor of delivery and collection at Cape Girardeau Post Office; Bonnie Diebold of East Tennessee; and Ted J. Peters and Mark Peters, co-owners and operators of the Peters Brothers Farm; as well as 29 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by one grandson.

Five of her sons are members of the Fourth Degree of the Knights of Columbus and one is in the Third Degree.

Descendents of Catherine Hinkebein Peters recorded in this book number 75.

MATTHEW HINKEBEIN

Matthew (Matt) was born 05 September 1904 in Leopold, Missouri. He was the second child of Theodore and Anne (Schreckenber) Hinkebein.

His birth was announced in the Marble Hill Press, September 15, 1904: "Born to Mr. and Mrs. Theo Hinkebein, a fine boy. Leopold"

Matthew had half siblings from his father's earlier marriage to Catherine, sister of Anne.

He attended school in Leopold, up to about the eighth grade. He told that even though it was a public school, catechism was taught as a subject since 95 out of the 96 pupils were Catholic. Matthew learned farming and helped work the family farm.

One of his chores as a child was carting in wood for the stove in a little wagon either his father or one of his brothers had made.

In 1926, or thereabouts, Matthew left home for St. Louis where he lived for several years. In 1934, he moved to Chicago where he lived 52 years except the brief time during the war.

In St. Louis, his first job was with the Pevely Dairy. However, when the Depression hit, work was scarce and the only work he was able to find was in hospitals. He did not like this type of work at all and this prompted his move to Chicago. In Chicago, he found a job as a paint salesman, work he enjoyed.

Matthew served in the Army for about 5 months during WWII from October 1942 to February 1943. He received an early discharge for medical reasons - flatfeet. He spent the next few years working in shipyards in Oregon as a journeyman. He said that he was always classified as 1A and worried he would be called up again. When the war ended, Matt returned to Chicago from Portland and continued working as a door to door paint salesman.

Matthew especially enjoyed the hustle and bustle of downtown Chicago and even in his early 80's enjoyed riding the busses to pass the time.

When Matthew was no longer able to take care of himself, he lived in a nursing establishment in Eureka, Missouri. There on 01 May 1994, at the age of 89, he died. The cause of death was cancer. He is buried at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery in St. Louis, Mo.

As a young man he left Leopold and went to St. Louis in search of work.

Save your sorrow for tomorrow
Smile all the while today.

Smile today, tomorrow may not come.

Smile all the while today.

PHILOMENA HINKEBEIN

Daughter of Meinard

PHILOMENA HINKEBEIN

Philomena Hinkebein was born in Cincinnati Ohio in April, 1855. She was the daughter of Meinard George Hinkebein and Maria Behrens. Her mother died when she was six months old.

Shortly thereafter, her father married Mary Catherine Wesseling.

In the late 1850's, the parents along with Philomena and her brother Theodore moved to Vinemount (Leopold) in Bollinger County, Mo. There she grew to adulthood and prior to 1880, married Herman Borg.

Herman was born in June 1849 in Germany. It is believed that the couple may have lived in St. Louis, Missouri for a short time and were known to be living in Ohio between 1881 and 1884. In 1886, they are found in Covington, Kenton County, Kentucky. This is where they raised their family and lived out the remainder of their lives

The 1900 Federal Census of Covington, Kenton, Kentucky finds the family of Herman Borg living at 470 Hawthorne Avenue in Covington, Kentucky.

It lists the occupation of Herman Borg as Quarryman who could read and write. It further shows that seven of the nine children born to Philomena were living.

The same census tells that Herman immigrated in 1871 and was naturalized in 1875.

The 1910 Federal Census shows that one more child had been born to Philomena making a total of 10 children.

The 1920 Federal census shows Herman Borg still living at the age of 70, residing at 1211 Holmes Avenue in Covington.

However, Philomena is not listed on the record. It can therefore be assumed that she died between 1910 and 1920 in Covington, Kentucky.

Some contact was made with the family in 1996, but not a lot of information on the family has been discovered.

Descendents of Philomena Hinkebein Borg recorded in this book number 45.

It has been found from the 1900 census that two of Philemina's children died prior to 1900.

Bc JOSEPH BORG (Meinard - Philemina - John)

Joseph was born in Feb. 1881 in Ohio. Around 1885, he along with his parents moved to Kentucky. As of 1920, he had not married and was still living in the household of Herman Borg. His occupation is listed as a finisher in a Piano factory.

Around 1922, he married Margaret Foltz who was born ca 1888. She had a son John who was born around 1909.

(Note - Children recorded in the 1930 census. There could have been more children)

Bd JOHN BORG (Meinard - Philemina - John)

John was born on 05 Aug 1884, in Ohio. His family moved to Kentucky in about 1885. Ca 1907, he married a woman named Rose who was born ca 1885 in Kentucky. His occupation, in 1920, is listed as a retail merchant, however, descendants say he was an ice man. The 1930 census record verifies that he was on ice man.

As of 1920, he was the father of five children and found them living at 702 W. 12th Street in Covington.

Be JOSEPHINE BORG (Meinard - Philomena - Josephine)

Josephine was born Sep 1886 in Kentucky. The 1920 Federal census shows her as unmarried and living in the Herman Borg household. It show her occupation as none. It is probable that since Philomena died before the family was grown, that Josephine, as the eldest daughter assumed her role and housekeeper and child rearer. Josephine did not marry.

Bf MARY BORG (Meinard - Philomena - Mary)

Mary was born Jan 1890 in Kentucky. The 1900 and 1920 census lists her name as Mary. The 1910 census lists her name as Mayme. This is probably a mistake made by the census taker and since Mary is the name listed twice, it is assumed that this is correct. Further information furnished by descendents verify that her name was Mary - but that she was called Mayme or Mae.

The 1920 census lists Mary as unmarried and living in the household of Herman Borg. Her occupation is listed as a starcher in a laundry.

Relatives state that sometime after 1920, she married Ed Baker.

Bg GEORGE BORG (Meinard - Philomena - George)

George was born in Sept 1892 in Kentucky. The 1920 Federal census shows him as unmarried and living in the household of Herman Borg. His occupation is listed as a cementer at a shoe factory. No further information is available on George.

Bh CATHERINE BORG (Meinard - Philomena - Catherine)

Catherine was born April 1897 in Covington, Kentucky. She was a twin with her sister Philomena. She apparently went by Katie, as she is so listed on the 1900 and 1910 census.

As of 1920, she is unmarried and living in the Herman Borg household. Her occupation is listed as a seamstress for men's clothing.

Descendents state that she married. Her husband was Uncle "Spike" Nieman.

Bi PHILOMENA BORG (Meinard - Philomena - Philomena)

Philomena was born April 1897 in Covington, Kentucky. She was a twin of Catherine. In 1920, she too is shown unmarried and living the the home of Herman Borg. Her occupation is shown as seamstress of men's clothing. No further information is available for Philomena Borg.

Bj ROSE BORG (Meinard - Philomena - Rose)

Rose was born about 1901 in Covington, Kentucky. She was known as Rosie. In 1920, she was unmarried and living in the home of Herman Borg. Her occupation is listed as seamstress for men's clothing.

Descendents state that after 1920, she married Robert Bockwieg.

The 1930 census shows her married to Robert H. Bockweig who was born around 1898, with two children. They were living in Covington, Kentucky. Since in 1930, Rose would have only been 29 years of age, she probably had more children after 1930.

She married Bernie Kroger. The 1930 census shows her no longer living at home, so it is assumed that she was married prior to 1930.
