St. John's Church

(PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL)

EAST BROAD AT 25TH STREET

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

REVEREND ROBERT BONNER ECHOLS, Rector

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH—ERECTED 1741

. . . . . In this Church, for more than two centuries, the Prayer Book services of the Church of England, and later of the American Episcopal Church, have been held.

. . . . . Here, on the 23rd day of March, 1775, in the presence of Washington, Jefferson, and the other members of the Virginia Convention, the torch of Liberty and of Christian Democracy was kindled by the inspired words of Patrick Henry:

"Liberty . . . or Death"

2nd SUNDAY in LENT

FLOWERS on the ALTAR today, as on each 1st Sunday of the month, are in loving memory of Mrs. Rachael Baldwin Jewell.

THIS AFTERNOON at 3 o'clock the rector will take part in the installation of the new pastor of the Venable Street Baptist Church. On Tuesday evening he will be the Lenten Preacher at St. Thomas' in Ginter Park, and on Wednesday evening at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Forest Hill.

TUESDAY - The Saint John's Chapter of the Daughters of the King will meet in the parish house at 3 P. M.

THURSDAY - The Choir Guild will meet in the parish house for quilting at 10 A. M.

FRIDAY - The pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist Church (colored) will be our Lenten Preacher at 8 P. M. He will bring some of the members of the choir of his Church: and they will repeat the sermon and music which was a part of the program at a recent meeting of the ministers of Richmond, held at the Ebenezer Church.

HAVE YOU made a public profession of the Christian faith? Would you like to be received into the army of Christ, which is the Christian Church, and give of your time and resources to aid the world-wide effort to bring the Kingdom of God upon earth, and to prepare the souls of men for Eternity? If already enrolled as a Christian in some other community or some other Church, would you like to become one of our family at St. John's? The rector would like to meet you in the Church at 4 P. M., or after the service this morning.

CLARENCE V. LUCAS, JUNIOR has been chosen to complete the term of his beloved and honored father, as president of the Men's Bible Class. We can hope for nothing better than that he will follow in his father's footsteps, and we feel assured that he will do so.

OUR THANKS to Mrs. Sidney Swann, organist and choir director at Saint Paul's, who in most gracious and efficient fashion is helping with our music. The music committee has asked Mrs. Ruth Wyatt to act as choir leader at the services, when Mrs. Swann is unable to be present.

MARRIAGE - On Wednesday, March 1st, Frances Lorriene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Brown, to Sergeant Allen E. Glazebrook.

THE COMMUNION WILL BE ADMINISTERED BY INTINCTION THIS MORNING, TO THOSE WHO PREFER THAT METHOD.

VOLUNTEERS needed - either organizations or individuals, to help serve the supper on March 10th, 24th and 31st.
