Rev. James J. Hickie,
St. Anne's Rectory,
Bristol, Va.

Dear Father Hickie:

I have waited till now to answer your last letter as I was expecting some blue prints from Father Michael showing the arrangements of the windows in your church.

I received them to-day and I am making some suggestions for the emblems to be used with the hope that they will meet with your approval and that of Father Michael.

I must say that the emblem of the Sacred Heart is no longer permissible by ruling of the Church unless it is shown in conjunction with the figure of Christ. I would suggest in its stead the Pierced Heart of The Blessed Virgin.

This is the order of the emblems as I would propose them.

Gospel side beginning nearest the altar.

EMBLEMS OF:

Epistle side

- 1- The Holy Trinity
- 2- Pierced Heart of Mary
- 3- The Phoenix (Resurrection)
- 4- Ship on waves(The Church)
- 5- Keys of St. Peter
- 6- St. Dunstan (Music)

- St Anne*
- 1- St. Joseph
 - 2- St Benedict
 - 3- ~~St. Paul~~
 - 4- Holy Ghost (Baptism)

I will send a copy of this to Father Michael and I will await word from you and him before proceeding with drawing of emblems.

Thanking you for the order and assuring you of my very best in carrying it out I remain

Sincerely yours,

Over
A. L. Pitassi.

P.S. If you approve of this list will you please return this to me?

This is St Aron's Church ^{one window}
Should have some emblem of this patron other wise the rest is ok.

Windows #6 and #4 are cut by the Gallery and also by stair landing - please note the plans and design accordingly

J. Michael
