Dear Mr. Pierce,

The drawing for Christ has been made & the glass has been cut for the entire panel, except the space where an inscription is to be placed as planned by my father. On his sketch the lettering is very light & difficult to read. By figuring out a few of the words it seems to read —

"I am the resurrection & the life eternal. He who believes in me shall live." Reading through the New Testament I have not come across any occasion where Christ said just that; but many things similar — Some of them are — "Be thou faithful unto death & I will give you the crown of life" "I am come a light into the world that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness"

"I am the way, the truth, & the life.
He that believeth shall be saved."

I write this as I thought perhaps you would like to choose what you think most appropriate.

The figure of Christ is as you requested. He wears the Crown, a high tone red robe + white undergarment. His arms are out stretched as far as the panel would allow (it's quite narrow) + an inscription near the top reads "Come unto me."

If there is any other quotation you may come across (+ it is not too long) that will be fine. Thank-you for your help in this.

Sincerely yours,

Louise Pitassi
