

COMES, PERRY & McMULLEN

ARCHITECTS

RENSHAW BUILDING, PITTSBURGH, PA.

JOHN T. COMES, A. A. I. A.,
WILL R. PERRY, R. A.,
LEO A. McMULLEN, R. A.

Pittsburgh, Penna.,

March 5, 1928.

Mr. A. L. Pitassi,

5345 Penn Avenue,

Pittsburgh, Penna .

Dear Mr. Pitassi:

The Rev. Michael Klasen, pastor of St. Gregory's Church, Chicago, Ill. has authorized me to award to you the furnishing f.o.b. Chicago, the following Stained Glass windows at the following prices:

3	groups of Triple Aisle Windows @ $2000.00---	$6000.00
2	groups of Double Aisle Windows @ $ 608.00---	$1216.00
2	groups of Double Clerestory Sanctuary Windows @ $ 520.00---	$1040.00
1	Triple Window in Choir Gallery @ $2960.00---	$2960.00

Total $11216.00

Full size cartoons including medallion and figure subjects as chosen by Rev. Klasen must be approved by architect before glass is manufactured. Quality of glass, painting, leading, glazing and cementing to be in accordance with sample of glass which has been submitted.

Payments shall be made by the Rev. Michael Klasen upon certificate of the architect.

You are to commence manufacture of the stained glass immediately, and complete same about December 1st, 1928.

Very truly yours,

Will R. Perry
Architect.