Dear Mr. P. Lassi:-

Your interpretation of the Purple vestments is quite correct. I admit that my interpretation was rather limited — thinking only of priests of lower rank than priests. It is true that in the European cathedrals where the ordinations take place the Bishops are attended by Canons in purple robes. In this country we have no Canons so called and these ordinations are therefore attended by the ordinary priests. I want you to go ahead and do as you see fit, you are the artist and you know your business.
You had invited my criticism and I gave as I felt it, but, of course, like all criticism it is not the final solution of the difficulty, but only a means to arrive more quickly at the correct end. Go on with the work, and by no means would I want the purple in the Episcopal Anction window changed.

I remain

Yours truly
Father Klacen.
