Rev. J. R. Mulvehill,
St Anselm's Church,
Swissvale, Pa.

Dear Father Mulvehill,

In accordance to our conversation I am submitting the subjects for the second window on the Epistle side which is under consideration for execution. Reading upward they are:
The Descent of the Holy Ghost - The Conversion of Saul - St Peter baptizes the Roman Centurion.

As we are already committed to a certain scheme by the first two windows I propose to carry the present one in harmony with them using the same quality of glass and materials which are the very best obtainable.

Having ~~done~~ all the windows already in the church I ~~should~~ ^{shall} not be found wanting in carrying out any further work in the same spirit in drawing and execution.

The price for this Window is $900.00 which includes bars and setting in place.

The subject matter for the rest of the windows has been drawn up by me with the best possible sequence and order, but as there is such latitude and wealth of material in carrying out the idea I should like to discuss it with you before making it final and giving you a copy for a permanent record.

For this purpose I should like to see you again either at your rectory or at my studio if you prefer paying me a visit and seeing some of the work I am carrying out at present for the new Cathedral at Toledo.

~~While~~ Waiting to hear from you I remain Sincerely yours,
A. L. Pitassi
