

The Church of Saint Benedict in Baltimore, Maryland, located at 2612 Wilkens Avenue in the aforementioned city would respectfully request permanent permission to make use of the drawings of Angelo Leopardo Pitassi, said drawings being finished sketches of stained glass windows that are installed in the Church of Saint Benedict, in Baltimore, MD.

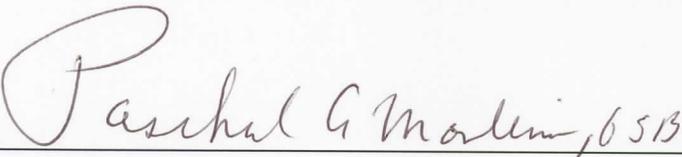

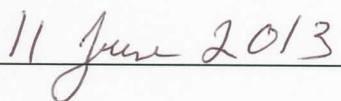

The drawings mentioned are original sketches for the stained glass windows currently installed in the Church building located at the above address.

Use of the drawings would be for but not limited to, advertisements, posters, promotional items, Parish websites, committees, parish Bulletins, note cards to be sold in the Benedictine Gift Shop located within the precincts of the Church environment.

Currently the Parish possesses scanned copies of the original drawings installed onto a flash drive unit but does not possess the actual, original drawings. Said original drawings were loaned to the Parish for the purpose of scanning for archival purposes.

Permission for such use of these original drawings as scanned copies has been granted by Louise Ellis, daughter of Angelo Leopardo Pitassi
