

ACC. NO 79.198.3

DONOR: Howard Hancock

CAT. NO.

Tray of Fossil Specimens

OBJECT:

1. Baculite, fragment. Upper crustaceous, has straight shell except for small initial stage.

DESCRIPTION:

Surface smooth with surved steal or low rounded ribs. Mas length 6 ft. but usually 3 to 6".

2. Worm-(Dickinsonian) fragment $1\frac{1}{2}$ " X 2".

Brown lines close together from a middle line.

3. Trilobite tail, fragment rock with specimen

DATE DONATED: imbedded.

4. Brochiopods, 10 small grey. Four reddish fan shape, has shells that are dorsolventral.

REMARKS:

5. Pelecypod, grey. $1\frac{1}{2}$ " X $1\frac{1}{4}$ ". Looks like a clam shell.

6. Gastropod, two curved pieces, one grey, one sandy. Marked 79-2-427. Could also be Hamites

7. Gastropod mesozoic, three very tiny shells, two tiny white.

LOCATION:

case X 5

8. Mud concretions, two small roundish sandstone rocks with fossils on them.
9. Coprolite, two. One grey smooth, three inches long. One reddish, with sandy texture and little bumps, four inches. Excretion of sharks.
10. Crinoid Fragments, sea lilies, disk shaped columns, sandy color. (taxocrinus)? Grey piece like slingshot (Isoxinus)? Grey funnel-like piece (gyptocrinus)? Straight grey-platycrinitz?)
11. Fossil slab with fish scales, coral, and small shells, grey ~~xxx~~ 2 X 3".
12. Two half round pieces of small rock with fossil inside.
13. Coral, four grey pieces.
14. Bryzoans, fan like moss animals. Resembles coral. Three pieces.
15. Gastropod? Small grey, shell in middle with fan like radials.

Given: 4-14-41