

Holocaust Aftermath: War Crimes Trials

The major Nazi war criminals were put on trial at Nuremberg from November 20, 1945, to October 1, 1946. Many were hanged; others served lengthy terms in prison. This is an official photograph of the proceedings from the Berlin archive, showing the defendant Nazis seated at the right, surrounded by uniformed guards, their attorneys in front of and below them.

