

Romania: Jewish Detention Camp Suraia

The tiny Romanian town of Suraia, District Putna, was the location of a Jewish detention camp. It is unlisted in the standard reference, Das Nationalsozialistische Lagersystem. The late Arie Ben David, himself a Romanian Jew and Holocaust mail expert, was unable to find out any additional information about this camp.

A Jewish family correspondence: July 14, 1943, censored registered postal card from Itcu Braunstein, detainee at Camp Suraia, to Eveline Braunstein at Bacau, and November 5, 1943, censored registered postal card to Itcu Braunstein at Camp Suraia.
