

July 12, 2022 – Tania, Eddie, & Nicole Kaczynski with Danny Spungen

Flight of Austrian Jews: Christadelphians Foster A Child

At fifteen, Helga Wertheimer's mother took her away from the Bland family against her will, creating strained relationships. At eighteen Helga was able to break free from her mother. She married the son of Fredrick Bellenger (prominent politician who briefly served as Secretary of War) and pursued a career in tourism.

In later years, she and her mother were able to forge a closer relationship.

Accompanying photo: On July 6, 2005, Helga was featured in the Daily Express newspaper showing her Kindertransport Red Cross tag #6165 to Camilla Barnes – the then Duchess of Cornwall – at an event at Clarence House in London. (In September 2022 Camilla became queen consort upon her husband's accession as King Charles III).