SAMUEL DE CHAMPLAIN PROVINCIAL PARK

People who come to Samuel de Champlain Provincial Park can sample the colourful past. The park lies in the valley of the historic Mattawa River, for countless years a major water highway for Indians, explorers, missionaries, coureurs de bois and voyageurs. If you paddle the river, you can witness the same scenes of natural beauty that greeted Champlain in 1615.

MARTEN RIVER PROVINCIAL PARK

Marten River Provincial Park offers you excellent camping, swimming, and boating; and because it was once an important logging area, it also gives you a rare chance to find out what the life of a lumberman was like half a century ago. Be sure to tour the logging exhibit during your stay.

YOUR FOREST IS PROTECTED FOR YOUR PLEASURE RESTOULE PROVINCIAL PARK

Restoule is a quiet, out of the way park about 1128 ha. in size. Remote and secluded, yet still within a days drive of the population centres of Southern Ontario. Restoule is a place to relax. Here you can enjoy leisurely fishing, some good swimming, canoeing, and motor-boating, and take long walks through the woods. One trail leads to a spectacular lookout 60m above Patterson Lake.
