MOTHERS GROUP RAISES OVER 400 DOLLARS FOR MARCH OF DIMES

JESS BIGELOW WAS THE MC FOR THE EVENING

Under the sponsorship of the Mothers Group over four hundred dollars were placed in the March of Dimes Fund to fight the dreaded polio.

Jess Bigelow of Oneals served very effectively as the master of ceremony for the evening's activities.

Decorations for the dance made and arranged by Doris Holmes, Neva Anders, Betty Bohner, Ruth Pettis, Ruth Owen, Blanche Morley, Art Morley, Dorothy Whitener, Jane Killian, Percy Anders, Ann Goodwin, Virginia DeSilva, and Bob Gibeaut.

The Refreshment Committee was composed of Ruth Pettis, Neva Anders, Thelma Porta, Mrs. Russ Keene, Mrs. Edd Wright and Mrs. D. O. Jones.

Glen Drake and Clarence Broughton were in charge of the tickets.

The Scouts of Troop 357 directed the parking of the cars. Vince Goodwin is the Scoutmaster and his assistant is Jack Parkinson.

Mrs. A. D. McCallum was the general chairman of the March of Dimes Dance, who made arrangements for the appearance of Max Baer who surely was appreciated.

The officers of the local Mothers Group, who added so much to the success of the dance, are; President, Ann Goodwin; Vice-President, Margaret Palmer; Secretary-Treasurer, Ruth Pettis.
