The records and minutes appended to this book were clipped from a large new Sessional Record Book that was in use only one year. The sheets are not numbered in sequence since they were taken from the book in several sections of that record. They are accurate, reliable and have recorded faithfully all that transpired in the church that took on new life in July 1951 only to be dissolved by an act of Presbytery December 31, 1952.

MINUTES OF SESSION.

A Short History of the Presbyterian Work in North Fork

Mission Work

In 1903, Miss Nellie McGraw was sent as the first missionary to the Mono Indians of North Fork. She had one girl in the first class but neither knew the language of the other so conversation was limited. During the next 7 years, the number of girls increased until there were, at times, a dozen girls enrolled.

In 1910, a young minister and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Hood were sent to the field and regular church services were started, to which Indian people came from miles around. All church services, Sunday School classes, funerals as well as all conversation had to be carried on through an interpreter.

On Sunday, May 19, 1912, the North Fork Indian Presbyterian church was organized by Rev. George B. Grieg. The latter was pastor evangelist who had been commissioned by the Presbytry, meeting in Modesto, Calif., April 9, 1912. He was assisted the Rev. Alexander Hood, missionary to the Indians. 175 Indians were present in the morning and 180 in the afternoon to witness the organization. 21 were received as charter members. Two of these were Elders although they could not read and write.

The number of girls increased to over 30 and by 1930 arrangements had been made for them to attend the public school while still living at the mission. Prior to this time five Indian boys had been staying at the manse. In 1930, however, a boys dormitory was built and 15 boys enrolled. The number increased to 30 the following year.

The largest enrollment in the history of the mission was 83. For a number of years it averaged above 70.

The new Work

At the Spring meeting of the San Joaquin Presbytery, meeting in Yosemite Park in April of 1950, authorization was given to change the name of the church to "Sierra Community Presbyterian Church" The Board of National Missions was to sell the 2 dormitories, and 2 residences as well as some of the land the Presbytery, already owning some of the property, was to retain the church building and the manse with a little land around them. White people were to be welcomed into this church along with all the members of the former Indian mission church who were automatically to be members of the reorganized church. After carefully going over the names of the Indians who had joined under the mission, it was found that many mission students had gone back to their homes in other towns and that there were 88 who still lived in the neighborhood of North Fork although some of these had not been attending.

On May 7, 1950, Rev. Ronald Schwat received 15 White people into membership., Mrs Schwat was already a member. The 15 are as follows: Mr. & Mrs. Glenn E. Hluchy, Glenn Hluchy Jr and Robert Hale Hluchy, Mrs. Philip Eastman, Mr & Mrs. H. V. Hayes, Mr. & Mrs. George Kramer, Mr. & Mrs. John C. Pettes, Mr. & Mrs. George Putney and Mr. & Mrs. E. L. Shellenberger.

The new Officers of the church under Mr. Schwat were as follows: Elders - Glenn E. Hluchy, Mrs. Clara Harris, Mrs. Livia Hayes, Mike Johnson, deceased, George L. Kramer, Frank Lewis and Bill Sherman. Three of these were whites (numbers 1, 3, and 5) and the others were Indians. Trustees: George L. Kramer, John C. Pettes and George D. Putney.

Treasurer: Mrs. Marcia N. Putney.

Mr. Schwab remained in North Fork under the Board of National Missions until December 1950, when the mission was terminated and the work was assumed by the enlarged church. Various substitute pastors supplied the pulpit until March 18, 1951 when Rev. Milo A.V. Hogan became the regular supply, with about 35 to 40 at the morning worship services. Later Mr. & Mrs. Hogan were asked to move to North Fork and give full time to the church, they moved the end of June and the installation by the Presbytery took place July 12, 1951. Thus Mr. Hogan became the first regularly installed pastor of the Sierra Community Presbyterian church.

It was decided to ask the Guild to appoint 2 members each week. None of church Elders available to attend meeting of Synod. Treasurers report read. Balance on hand, $209.94 with $68.50 earmarked for funeral. Rev Hogan suggested that young people who served as ushers at Installation act as ushers on Sunday mornings. This was conceded to be a good idea if boys are willing. It was decided to hold Prayer meetings at the manse on Wednesday evenings.

Membership list. Since 1946, in the record book of session minutes left by Mr. Schwab, there was no record of members taken into the Church, although there are names of 3 babies baptized since that time. No other membership list has been found, although the Clerk of Session, Glenn Mickey, was given the list of interested families which included many of the members. The Pastor is to write Rev. Harold Schwab to see if he has the names of those who have joined since 1946 at the mission, and the names of those who come in with the organization of the Sierra Community Presbyterian Church. It is Mr. Hogan's understanding that all members of the Church in mission days, who are here at the present time, are now members of this Church. Mr. Hogan reports he is collecting a list of all those he can find by using the old session minutes.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Elder Bill Sherman.

MINUTES OF SESSION.

Organization.

On Sunday, May 19th 1912 the North Fork Indian Presbyterian Church was organized by Rev. George B. Greig Pastor Evangelist of the Presbytery of San Joaquin. Mr Greig was appointed by Presbytery met in Coalinga Cal. April 9, 1912, to visit the field and organize a church if the way was open. Rev. Alexander Hood, Missionary to the Indians, assisted by Rev. Geo. B. Greig and Rev. J. Walter Jordon, held preparatory services both morning and evening of the Fri. and Sat. preceeding the organization. These services were well attended.

Sunday morning a regular preaching service was held, at which there were present 175 Indians. In the afternoon 180 Indians were present and witnessed the organization.

The following adult Indians were baptized by Rev. Alexander Hood:-

Katharine F. Watters was received by letter from the First Presbyterian Church of Santa Cruz, Calif. Helen H. Hood, Frances Marston and John Sherman were received pending the receipt of their letters

The following infants were presented for baptism and the ordinance was administered by Rev. J. Walter Jordon: Dorothy Helen Hood, Johnnie Johnson, Wallie McDonald, Elda Sherman, Ada Dick, Mina Jackson and Willie Jackson.

The following elders were elected and installed: Jack Morris for a term of two years and Mike McDonald for one year.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was then observed, the newly elected elders serving.

Besides those uniting with the new church, there were six others who applied for baptism, but for various reasons, were asked to wait for six months, and their names were placed on a waiting list. Their names were as follows:

Frank Lewis, Jennie Maxwell, Minnie Frank, Rosie Belledue, Smith Morris and Määnä Johnson

March 23 '13

The Session met after the adjournment of Sunday School and was opened with prayer. Molly Chepo met with the Session by request to answer certain charges that had been made against her. She admitted having been under the influence of liquor once, and of having since that time ceased to pray. As she was not willing to resume her former Christian life, but expressed sorrow for her sin, the Session voted to let the matter rest for a little while and that prayer should be offered for the wayward woman. It was felt that a good deal of patience and charity was necessary, as Molly Chepo had, previous to her conversion led a life of lewdness and was frequently intoxicated. And it was further taken into account that her fall was not from deliberate choice but was brought about by drinking wine with the assurance it would do her no harm.

Those present were elders Jack Norris and Mike McDonald and the Minister, Alexander Wood.

Apr. 6, 1913

After the regular afternoon service, the Session met for a short time. Prayer was offered by the minister, Alexander Wood.

Four young men and one young girl presented themselves, stating that they desired to accept Christ and be baptized. After a careful examination it was thought best to defer baptism for a few weeks at least.

Elder McDonald was chosen to represent the church at the regular meeting of Presbytery on April 9th.

Those present were Elder McDonald and the minister.

Charles Dlandy, Martin Lewis, Hannie Jefferson, Jim Dlandy and his wife Stella Dlandy, Mary Jack, Mary Brown, Susan Luvelle, Jennie Maxwell, John Jackson, jr., Edna Jefferson and Hotope.
The name of Molly Chepo was placed on the Suspended Roll. The Session had previously summoned her to meet with them and tried to persuade her to give up the sin she had ~~followed~~ fallen into. Altho stating that she was sorry for her actions, refused to come back and take her place in the church. Having waited a reasonable time it was thought best to place her name on the Suspended Roll. Prayer was offered for the erring sister.

The Session met at the close of the afternoon service, and was opened with prayer. The following persons appeared before the Session asking for baptism:

Kitty Shulte, ~~Jim Chepo~~, Emma Chepo, Lizzie Lewis, Nita Jackson and Annie Maxwell. Frank Shulte also presented himself but was not sure he was ready for baptism. He wanted to inquire about the way of salvation, but preferred to wait till he had considered the question more fully, before uniting with the church.

The meeting adjourned, after prayer, the candidates being asked to meet with the Session again at the meeting preceding the Communion, Nov. 16, at which time they would be examined more fully.

Alexander Hood,
Clerk

Nov. 9, 1913.

The Session met after the afternoon service and was opened with prayer.

Jim Chepo appeared before the Session asking for baptism. He was carefully examined and was asked to appear again before the Session before the Communion Service on the 16th of Nov.

Annie Maxwell appeared again asking for further instruction in the duties of Church members.

In view of the fact that Elder Mike McDonald has absented himself from the services of the church for several months, and because he is known to have committed, for some time, immoral and sinful acts, and has refused to leave his sinful life and return to his place in the Church, it was decided to place his name on the suspended roll, and to elect one or more new elders at a congregational meeting to be held Nov. 16, 1913.

The meeting was closed with prayer.

Mr Donald Archibald McCallum made profession of his faith in Christ and asked for Christian baptism for himself and his three infant children. He explained that he would ask for a letter later to some church in Oakland, Calif. where his home is. Mrs McCallum had united with the church at Wellpinit, Washington when a girl of fifteen, while Mr. Hood was minister there and it was the desire of both Mr and Mrs McCallum that he and their children be baptized by Mr Hood. April 12, '36 The Session met before the afternoon communion service and was opened with prayer by Elder Frank Lewis. Both the other elders, William Sherman and Mike Johnson were present. Mrs Susan Johnson and Mrs Minnie McDonald came before the Session telling of un-Christian feelings they had harboured in their hearts because of family difficulties, both expressing determination to forget such feelings and go forward with new zeal as members of the Church.

Mrs. Harmie Jefferson asked for baptism for her children but, as she was not ready to surrender her own life to Christ was advised to wait till she had herself become a professing Christian.

Condeba Smith applied for membership in the Church but the Session felt she was still too willing to compromise with worldly and questionable practices, and asked her to consider further her need of complete surrender to Christ, promising her the prayers and sympathetic help of every member of the Session. After prayer for the above persons and for the service which was to follow the meeting adjourned.

The Session met at noon with all members ~~of the~~ present. Elders, Mike Johnson, Frank Lewis and William Sherman. Mr Sherman offered prayer.

Mrs Susan Johnson asked the Session to help settle some trouble between herself and Mrs Ada Bishop and Mrs Bishop's mother, Annie Gibbons. All three parties were called by the Session, and after some discussion and admonition Mrs Johnson and Mrs Bishop agreed to "forgive and forget" and were admitted to the Lord's Supper which was observed in the afternoon. However, Mrs Gibbons refused to shake hands with Mrs Johnson and end the feeling of bitterness in her heart and was, accordingly warned by the elders not to partake of the Lord's Supper till she could forgive any alleged wrongs and put the bitterness out of her heart.

Sherman Chepo

Mrs Mary Sherman asked to have her infant son Gifford baptised and Mrs Mary Chepo asked baptism for her infant daughter Betty. Both requests were granted and the children were baptised at the beginning of the afternoon service.

The following, having presented themselves asking to be received into the membership of the Church, were examined and received: Evelyn Walker, Irene Lewis, Louise Davies, Louis Davis (twin brother of Louise) Ruby Pomona, Helen Hogan, Marian Hensley, Norman James, Jack Chepo, Knox Jackson, Marjorie Sherman, Frank Sherman, Sylvena Goode, Victor Muhley. The two last named had been baptised in infancy but all the others were baptised before the Communion Service. Louise Anderson and Andrew Major, asked for baptism and membership in the Church but were advised to unite with the Baptist Church at Auberry, California as both were young and the parents of both belong to the Auberry Baptist Church. This was considered advisable as a means of avoiding misunderstanding on the part of the Baptist people. Barbara Lewis, from Table Mountain had
