In Loving Memory of Robert Lee

Seattle native Robert Lee, born on Oct. 17th 1946, passed Sat. April 5th, 2014. Robert touched many lives through his work and volunteer efforts. He dedicated over 38 years of service as a Seattle Public Schools employee in various roles including Educator, Coach, and Multicultural Diversity Specialist. As a community member, he lent his many talents to organizations such as Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Miller Community Center, and CAMP. He leaves behind many family, friends, and students to cherish his memory. We will gather at Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Seattle on Sat. April 19th at 11 am to celebrate his enduring legacy. The family asks in lieu of flowers, please send donations to Rainier Scholars in Robert E. Lee's name. All cards can be mailed to The Lee Family PO Box 51001 Seattle, WA 98115.
