

What's With the G.O.P.

Henry E. Perry
Chairman, 37th District

Last week this column was full of the thought-provoking statements of a distinguished recent visitor to this city, Grant Reynolds, a New York attorney, former Congregational minister, and a life member of the N.A.A.C.P.

Mr. Reynolds had much to say about the dangers of sending Democrats to Congress, and the failure of the Democrats in general, and Mr. Kennedy in particular, to live up to campaign promises.

The latest examples are the inexcusable 18 month delay by the President in signing an executive decree prohibiting discrimination in federal housing; and the failure of Democratic leaders (including the President) to use their influence to persuade unions to hire more Negro apprentices.

"Does the Democratic Party really care about the Negro?" asked Mr. Reynolds, referring also to recent efforts by the administration to impose "medicare" on the American people. "The medicare program is not medical care at all, it is hospital and nursing home care. And, if you don't have $90 to start with, you can't even get in," he said, explaining that a patient must pay $10 a day for the first nine days in a hospital. "Furthermore the program is not even open to some 590,000 Americans over 65 not on Social Security, most of whom are Negroes," added Mr. Reynolds, reminding his audience that the Social Security system, when established under the Roosevelt administration, excluded agricultural and domestic workers (consisting mostly of Negroes) who have been unable to qualify to the present day.

The impression has grown in recent years that the Democratic Party is taking the Negro voter for granted; and that it is not wise for any group of voters to put all of its political eggs in one basket.

Torrance Heads Salvation Army Christmas Program

Lt. Colonel Richard B. Fitton, Divisional Commander, announced today that 1962 Christmas activities of The Salvation Army in the City of Seattle will be directed by Roscoe C. Torrance, member of the local Advisory Board. Serving with Torrance are Board Members, Marvin E. Burke, Harold F. Navarre, Robert B. Nelson, Sr., and William Zukerman.

The Committee will meet this week to make plans for the 1962 Christmas program of The Salvation Army in Seattle. Last year thousands of less fortunate citizens were assisted over the holiday season by the Army. Traditional activities include the Toy and Joy Shop, League of Mercy visits to hospitals, rest homes, and correctional institutions and the Christmas Welfare Distribution Center.

Torrance expects a heavy demand for Army services this year, and indicated the organization will be working in close co-operation with other groups and organizations engaged in Christmas service to the community.

NAACP

Excerpts of remarks by Merle M. McCurdy, United States Attorney for Northern Ohio, at the NAACP 43rd Annual Convention, Municipal Auditorium, Atlanta, Georgia, July 4, 1962, 8 p.m.

The right to vote is a precious thing. Any American who fails to exercise this prerogative commits a crime not only against himself but also against his fellow man.

The greatness of this country is grounded upon democratic processes. Among these processes is the right to cast our ballots. Therefore, there is a built-in and inherent power that each of us holds in his hands to correct such evils as discrimination, overt acts of prejudice and unfair employment practices.

The full potential of the political and economic and social welfare of the Negro can only be attained when we, through our own mighty efforts, are given that to which we are entitled, namely: the unhindered right to cast our ballots in every election, in every community of this country of ours.
