OBITUARY

May 12, 1981 at Virginia Mason Hospital, James Van Hart was called to rest by his Master.

He was born August 9, 1948 in Roslyn Washington to Mr and Mrs William Hart. He resided in Roslyn until his parents moved to Seattle in 1955.

James attended school in Roslyn Washington and Seattle Washington. He was graduated from Garfield High School in 1967. He worked at Boeings and was employed by Bethelham Steel Co, at the time of his illness.

James leaves to cherish his memories, two daughters, Danetta, Anita; one son, Darius; one sister, Beulah Mae Grimm; two brothers, Edward Cecil Hart, Theodore David Hart; a sister-inlaw, Osceola Betty Jane Hart; a brother-inlaw, Glenn Grimm; Seattle WA; a grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Craven, Roslyn, Washington; six uncles, Herschel Mahmood, Mr. Samuel Craven, Mr. Wesley Craven, Mr. Nathaniel Craven, Seattle, Mr. Van Craven, Richmond CA., Mr. William Craven, Roslyn Washington; nine aunts, Pastoress Elaine Dillard, Mrs. Mary Cullens, Mrs. Leola Woffort, Mrs. Gertrude Hightower, Mrs. Harriett Greenwood, Kanashibushan, Pastoress Ethel Sweets, Seattle, Mrs. Jimmie Lee Cornelius, Ellensburg, Washington, Mrs. Louella Jefferson, Flint Michigan; a loving friend, Ivy Vallieue;

Jimmy always believed that life was hard and you must earn what you get, because you will not get anything for nothing.

We truly believe Jimmy has earned his place with the lord
