Six years in the making: August Wilson's Joe Turner's Come and Gone The Full Production Comes to Life in February

This spring, a six-year partnership between Broadway Center for the Performing Arts, Northwest Playwrights Alliance, The Conversation, and Washington State History Museum will culminate in a full-scale production of August Wilson's Joe Turner's Come and Gone. Under the guidance of Director C. Rosalind Bell, an entirely local cast will perform seven performances from February 8 to 23. Tickets are on sale now at www.BroadwayCenter.org.

Set in 1911, the play centers on the happenings in a Pittsburgh boarding house. Owners Seth and Bertha Holly play host to a makeshift family of guests during the "Great Migration" of the early twentieth century when descendants of former slaves moved North in large numbers in search of new jobs, lives, and beginnings. A testament to the indefatigable nature of the human spirit, the story of Joe Turner's Come and Gone is one of triumph, sorrow, and unyielding hope.

Seattle Seahawks
Superbowl XLVIII

Dream fulfilled: Like the few who have reached the pinnacle in there profession, the Seattle Seahawks are Super Bowl Champions. The Seahawks had an opportunity of a lifetime and they seized the moment. The once in a lifetime accomplishment was a 43 to 8 dominating win over the Denver Broncos. The place and who they beat where all part of the fairy tale. The Seahawks number one ranked defense shut down the number one ranked offense led by the Leagues Offensive player of the year and arguable one of it's greatest players at the quarterback position. The anticipated match up between the one's turned out to be nothing more than a grand celebration for the 12's. The 12's better know as the Seahawks 12th man trekked across the country to follow their warriors. These Seahawk warriors did it there way in New Jersey/ New York of all places. " At the beginning of the season I told the guys, Hey, Why not us, Quarterback Russell Wilson said after the game. " We believed that we can be here, we have the talent we have the coaching staff, we have the best fans in the National Football League. We wanted to win it all. That was our mentality through-out the whole thing." Mental toughness has always been the team's motto from the beginning. The team was picked to play in the Super bowl before the season began. To keep an unwavering and razor sharp focus throughout is not any easy task. The team had few distractions and made few mistakes. When the team did make a mistake, it was used as motivation for the next opportunity.. " Our focus was one game at a time, build on that and face the next challenge," Head Coach Pete Carroll said. Many believed the Seahawks were facing their biggest and greatest challenge against the Broncos. In the end it was the Broncos who faced an opponent like no other. " We ran into a buzz saw today, " Denver Broncos Head Coach John Fox said after the game." We didn't play well enough to beat a very very good Seahawks team. They're a great defense. They're well coached and did a great job." Indeed a great job the Seahawks did. Going into the game Denver hadn't been held to fewer than 20 points all season. Denver had only lost seven times in thirty-five previous games and had never lost by more than ten points.
Going into the game, Peyton Manning had not been sacked and barely touched.
In Sunday's game Seattle forced two Manning interceptions and kept him on the run all night. " They just made more plays than we did," Manning said. " They forced some turnovers, a credit to them, as far as offensive mistakes, I give them credit for that." Yes indeed give the Seattle Seahawks organization and it's fun much credit for a dominating win. Sundays point difference is the second most in Super Bowl history.

CENTRAL AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEWS

BY DECHARLENE WILLIAMS

This week I have another sad report to write: "I lift my head up for MOTHER CAROLINE MORGAN, and for other people. I met Mother Pearl 44 years ago. Her daughter Ms. Betty Daniels came to work as one of my stylist, at that time I had 13 people working at my salon, and made all the headline news and was awarded by Governor Dan Evers as the most unique Salon in the state (1969). That year, as I promoted the Afro Hair styles Ms. Betty Daniels was the oldest daughter of Mother Morgan and she was so excited to see Betty being featured in the news of the weeks magazine. She came down to personally thank me for helping to promote her daughter's career along with what I was doing in the community and with my salon work image. We talked and I told her that I was building community for the "Black race" here in Washington State, and that this is why I positioned myself in the Central District to focus on building success stories to help our movement and struggles go away. I was doing this to help the others to succeed in a successful lifestyle, so that they could send their children to college and to buy themselves a homes, And even to help build a Black Mall. Mother pearl could not believe, I was talking like that; she stated that most blacks prevent others from succeeding, we laughed and talked." Through our conversation, we found out that we both was walking with "God" I held my hand out to shake hers and she garbed me and held me in a godly way, we became to admirers of each others work in the community. Mother Morgan was employed by the Seattle Public Schools in the lunch program and etc. She was a liaison for children with concerns, and often feed a lot of children in their neighborhood, with her special peanut butter sandwich, (smile) and great cookies. I myself would have closed my Salon because I was getting robbed every 6 weeks and I often would play Ms. Annie (beat up lady) whereas I would go after them to gun them down: with no insurance, a lot of bills, and people to take care of, that counted on my financial help, to feed there families. I had a very bad attitude and got the fight on! (Smile) with people who got in my way! During this time It was people like Mother Morgan that would talk to me, so I would cool my heals. (Smile) which kept me with my GODLY walk! Let me say to "YOU" that a PEARL is a person that is gifted with values, and strength that never change their walk! While here on earth in the flesh "Mother Pearl" did so many great things to enhance mankind, As a loving mother she was there for her children; teaching them the way to GOD, As a grandmother, she was a loving person and kind to all, and for her "Earthly gifts" God has her to Soar with his son Jesus Christ in the highest heights of all! Please read in the Bible JOHN 13:1. Let's give a shout out for the new life that Morgan will endure, because you know that there is still life after death. THIS MONTH IS BLACK HISTORY MONTH. Sunday at People's Institutional Baptist Church, Sister Sharon did a special tribute for the Life of Madam C.J. Walker- the first Black millionaire in 1896. Madam C., promoted hair products and the pressing comb throughout the United States. I was named (Ms. DeCharlene Williams) the C. J. Walker of today! It was a delight to receive this recognition, but I was so sorry that I did not find out in time too attend. I appreciate your thoughts and love you for what you think of me and wish I could have been present. "Ms. Linda Battle, a great grandmother has been blessed by GOD with the granting of her young granddaughter's life. A YOUNG child, has been granted good health, as she was facing a life or death situation with Cancer. She has made it though "thanks to all the many prayer warriors. Thank for reading and let's keep loving each other. If you have BLACK HISTORY INFORMATION to share please let me here from you (206) 322 8296.
