

The Seattle Medium Wants To Know...

Text & Photos
By John Gladney

Today there are more and more Blacks getting into politics. What would it take for you to consider running for public office?

Vel Braggs: "It would have to be clean. I know that there is a lot of corruption out there. I really do not want to deal with it. There is a lot to lose being a political figure. It is easy to get caught up in the political games in order to keep your position."

Lindsey Crumpton: "Support, outside support, people support. I would run for councilman. I would work more in the community and with the youth. I would run because of the lack of energy that is put in to make the system work. I do not think that there are great opportunities for Blacks, you have to make your own."

Don Meadows: "MONEY. All of the biggest and most successful politicians had money before they ran for office."

Sean McNeil: "Money, if I had the money. You need money to run a good campaign to have a chance to win. I would run so that I could help my fellowman."

Charles Atterberry: "Good advertising and money. I would run because I am Black. Blacks have a good opportunity to change things for everyone."
