Rolland Runs for Secretary of State

Well known political and community activ.. Charles Rolland is a leading candidate in Washington State's race for Secretary of State. In his first run for elective office, Rolland, the only African American in any statewide contest, faces four other Democrats in the crowded sSeptember 19 Democratic primary.

Supporters of Rolland's candidacy, including Norm Rice, County Council members Larry Gossett and Dwight Pelz, Eddie Rye, Jr., Jackie Moscou., Roberto Maestas, Vivian Carver, Constance Bowen and others are hosting a reception/fundraiser for the candidate on Thursday, August 24th from 5:30p.m. to 7:30p.m. at the Royal Esquire Club, 5016 Rainier Avenue South. Information about the event can be obtained by calling the campaign headquarters at (206) 323-0458.

The duties of the Secretary of State include the oversight of elections and voter registration, the registration and licensing of corporations and limited partnerships, and representing the state on trade missions and with visiting dignitaries.

"I am running because I want to restore credibility to the electoral process," Rolland stated. "Too many of us are disillusioned and feel that our vote is no match for special interests and PACs."

Rolland came into prominence as the State Coordinator for the 1988 Jesse Jackson for President campaign. As chief strategist and organizer, he led an impressive showing in the state, with Jackson receiving over 42% of the vote. His next effort came in 1989 as campaign manager for Norm Rice's successful bid for Mayor of Seattle. From 1990 to 1993 he served in Rice's administration as Deputy Chief of staff.

"Charles served this city well as my deputy," Rice recalled. "He is a seasoned consensus-builder as well as a tough negotiator."

In 1993, Rolland was elected as Chair of the Washington State Democratic Party, a post he held until 1995. To that role, he brought a commitment to voter outreach and registration and strong fiscal management, and fundraising skills.

Rolland says that he will bring a new style of leadership and a new dynamic to the office of Secretary of State. His platform includes:

*A pledge to reach out aggressively to young people to involve them in the political process.
*To champion campaign finance reform;
*To promote greater small business participation in the state, national and global economies;
*To advocate for a code of corporate internet ethics for stronger protection of citizen privacy; and
*To utilize technology to enhance the services of the Secretary's office.

"I will be the civics ambassador, going into the schools and neighborhoods to motivate and encourage our young people to register and vote," Rolland said.

Rolland has a long history of youth involvement, beginning in 1973 as a tutor for the Central Area Youth Association. Over the years he has coached little league baseball and youth basketball and has mentored young men raised in female-headed single parent households.

Rolland is married to actor/director Jackie Moscou, well known for her direction of such plays as "Having Our Say", "Blues for an Alabama Sky" and "Black Nativity." The couple have three children: Danielle, 23, a recent graduate of Morgan State University and a Peace Corps volunteer; Marcus, 17, a senior at Garfield High School; and Sekou, 11, a sixth grader at Summit.

"Charles Rolland is the Rainbow candidate in the September 19 primary," said Gossett. "He has proven time after time that he has never forgotten where he came from."

Join Charles Rolland and his supporters Thursday August 23, 2000 at THE ROYAL ESQUIRE CLUB.

Paid for by the Charles Rolland for Secretary of State Campaign, 930 24th Avenue South, Seattle WA 98144.

Frank Wilcher wants to get you rolling in a New Car at Millennium Ford

Frank Wilcher is one of 15 African- American car dealers in Washington. He started working in the car business in 1983. He began working in sales at Sound Ford and the Fleet department for four years. He then went to the Used Cars where he managed for a couple of years, and worked at Sound Mazda for 2 years.

Mr. Wilcher went from used car sales to owning his own dealership in less than 17 years. In January of 1999, at the age of 40 years, Frank opened his own dealership. Thinking about the future and all the new opportunities, he came up with the perfect name:

Millennium Ford!

"I thought that it would be a good name, something for people to remember you by." said Wilcher. "The thing that makes Millennium Ford unique from any other brand new dealership is that with 17 years mostly at Sound Ford, the biggest store in the state, I've learned what it takes to make a difference in peoples lives. Anything other dealerships can do, I can do. We are signed with the same banks / lenders, and I am willing to work with anyone."

"Ford has a lot of minority programs that help aspiring people if they really work hard and stay focused on your goals. It has been 17 years in this industry. A long time coming, well overdue."

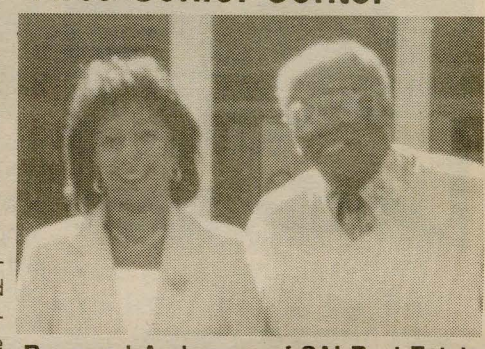

"I want to build a reputation for being there for our communities and always doing the right thing. I've done community work with Child Haven and local charities and I hope to do more in the future."

"I grew up without a lot of things. Now that I am in the position to help others, I will do what I can."

"It is important to have a goal, whatever your goal is. If it is to sell ten cars, focus on that goal and take it very serious and aim high. Once you have achieved that goal, go on to the next goal."

"I would like to thank the Facts for supporting me and I appreciate all the support from the community. Come out to Millennium Ford and experience the difference."

Seattle Central Kiwanis will host the annual Ross & Carolyn Burks "A Step Beyond the Norm" Appreciation Banquet at the Central Area Senior Center

Raymond Anderson, of SAI Real Estate and Brenda Charles, chairperson of Central Kiwanis Club.

The Seattle Central Kiwanis will host the annual Ross & Carolyn Burk "A Step Beyond the Norm" appreciation banquet at the Central Area Senior Center at 500 30th Avenue South on Tuesday, August 15, 2000. Plaques will be presented to Rev. Gil B. & Mrs. Doris Watts Lloyd and posthumously to Charles (Chuck) Jackson, and Charles D. Gill, Sr. for their outstanding service to the community. The annual award plaque will be hung on the wall at the center.

The speaker will be J.R. Gillespie with Fortis Investors. His topic will be "How Seniors can benefit from Long Term Healthcare Coverage." Jazz and gospel singer Ms. Josephine "Josie" Howell will perform.

The cost of this banquet is $15.00 and seniors over 65 attend "FREE". The public is invited to attend.

Some of the sponsors for this event are Branch Villa Health Care Center, The Silver Fork Restaurant, Central Area Chamber of Commerce, and DeCharlene's Beauty & Boutique, and SAI Realty, Ray Anderson and Joe Spates the Cleaner and Tuxedo Rental.

"I Am Yours To The End!"

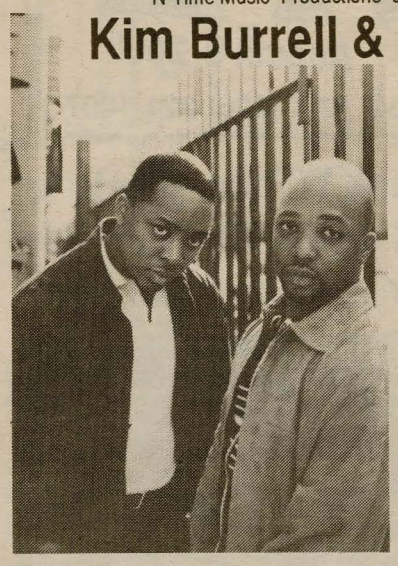

Copyright: 7-14-00 by Gloria Jean Polk

(The Soldier's Anthem)
I AM YOURS TO THE END!
Everyday as I walk this land
I grasp tighter to your nail scarred hand
Every step I take I walk within
Your footprints....
So, Sweet Lord Jesus
"Stay the Course" in my heart
That I will walk boldly in your name
And finish what you, in me, did start
I AM YOURS TO THE END!
I Acknowledge How Great You Are
and how much on you I lean
For without you in my heart
And by my side
My "Old" nature would manifest hard & mean...
So, I thank you, sweet Lord Jesus
For your long suffering & grace
For to me you have given this day
Much Love, Mercy & Hope
That only a forgiven and joyful heat could embrace!

Philippians 4:6 - 7

"Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with Thanksgiving let your request be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." When we ask God for things we ask big, just remember when you ask through prayer always be thankful for what God has already done. In other Bible versions this may be defined as not being anxious for nothing, but through prayer let your request be known to God. When you're focused on what Gods going to do in your life just by the proof of what he has already done, his peace will guard your heart. Like Luke 11:5 explains when you seek him you will find him, when you ask him he will deliver. May God bless you mightily through Jesus Christ. Word of Life Church (425) 776-LIFE simspc@msn.com.

The Seattle Storm beat the Portland Fire By Rob Taber

The Storm played the Portland Fire on Sunday at Key Arena. Women's basketball has changed a lot in the last 10 years. In the warm-ups Stacey Crawley dunked the ball. The women playing in the WNBA are a lot stronger and taller. The Storm got off to a slow start but the bench helped out. At half time the score was 32-24 Portland. . In the second half the Storm came out strong and played with a lot of heart. The game went into overtime and Seattle won. Jamie Redd played very well and finished with 14 points.

Early Bird Lap Swim Available at Rainier Beach Complex

For "early birds" who like to exercise in the morning, the Rainier Beach Recreation Complex offers an early morning lap swim from 6 to 7:30 a.m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays (except holidays).

Lap swimming is excellent aerobic exercise because it increases cardiovascular strength and flexibility, it helps control weight, and it feels good.

It's great for people who have trouble exercising on land because water supports the body. It's easier on the body than jogging, aerobic classes, or other aerobic exercise because you don't have to pound your feet on a hard surface. And as you use your arms and legs to propel yourself through the water, it strengthens and tones more muscle groups than other forms of exercise.

If you start the day early, this schedule is for you--you can finish your workout before you head to school or work. It's a great way to start the day!

The cost is $20 for a swim card good for eight sessions. For more information and to sign up for the early lap swim, please call the Rainier Beach Recreation Complex at (206) 386-1925.

We all know the saying, "What you see is what you get." But that is not always true in business dealing. Just recently, some nefarious people from outside this country approached me with an amazing offer that at first, I thought was the deal of the century. They said that my company could make millions of dollars if we could hold funds for them that were about to be confiscated by their government, unless they could secure an American bank to transfer this money into until the turmoil in their county was settled.

Now, how many of you would see this opportunity as an amazing windfall for just a little work. The deal was to transfer over 21 million dollars to my business account, hold it until these government officials, called for it, and for the service, we would make 4.5 million on the deal. How simple!

It was not till later after I had became suspicious and started searching the web about the affairs of this country, did I find that there was a scam out such as this, that had been running since 1998. it was shocking and a revelation to find that while this scandalous activity had been going on for some time, it was well guarded and even calling network news and the FBI was to no avail. No one seemed to care or give much interest. It is just fortunate I was net savvy and aware enough to have been one to outsmart the slicksters. I saved myself bundles of money, yet they are still out there.

A business associate lost over $25,000 to a similar seemingly authentic government plea from this same county, and he just happened to be a native of the region! So you can see how well put together the scheme is. It can fool even one of their own.

I write all this to make you and other businesses aware that this is happening, and that the next targeted business could be yours. This one came in the form of an e-mail from a brother in Africa purporting to be a government official. These types of emails can come from anywhere and promise many things to all types of people. And sure, we're all looking to expand our horizons financially, but let me tell you that the old adage still applies," if it sounds too good to be true...it probably is!"

That's news you can use from the "Write Professional" Bobby Fleeks. Guard your money and invest wisely to build business growth. Quick money schemes are still out there...Some may work...some may not. Remember WRITE PROFESSIONALS' job is "Building Dreams Into Visible Realities" and that is what I can help you with, but it still takes more than just wishful thinking. And that my friends, is today's BUSINESS WRITES.

EFFECTIVE REMEDIES TO IRS TAX DEBT

Hello again friends. As you know, my job is to help solve your tax problems. If you are behind in your taxes, all the good the new prosperity has brought is still probably causing you headaches and worry.

If you were behind on your taxes, it would be advisable not to be fooled by the Internal Revenues new taxpayer friendly approach. I've told you about the legislative reforms that were passed in 1998 to help protect you from overzealous collections agents. But you need to know that the IRS has not forgotten its job - to collect what it thinks taxpayers owe. Interest and penalties on back taxes can run as high as 24% a year, so it's a good idea to get caught up as soon as possible.

Seek an effective remedy with the IRS to settle youth tax debt issues. Offer In Compromise, my office specialty, is a settlement program that is designed for the person who has amassed a large debt that they aren't realistically able to pay off. It's a formula-driven program that is based on a delinquent taxpayer's net worth and future income stream. The Offer is Compromise is for people who truly cannot pay their back taxes and wish to settle the matter. You should seek an Offer in Compromise when you are still in financial trouble, not when they start coming after your property of assets.

A Penalty Abatement is a request by an individual who has been paying his or her tax debt to have the penalty excused because of the special circumstances (death in the family, divorce, natural disaster, etc.) that prevented them from paying their taxes in the first place. Quite often, the amount excused equals the amount of the original tax debt.

Another program, Tax Resolution, helps reduce the amount you owe. Often tax debt can be reduced to a payment of pennies on the dollar.

To avoid these troubles before they happen, work out the best deal up front. When extenuating circumstances such as job loss or illness contribute to tax delinquency, it's sometimes possible to get the penalties associated with them removed. In order to arrange this type of settlement, you need to know the laws and regulations. That is why I am here. To help you work out the best solution to all these problems. Don't expect the IRS to point out the angels what work in your favor. You need some one like me, who knows the best method of getting you the best and most satisfactory settlement.

Just more tips on saving money on your taxes. Till next time..... "Stay Money Wise & Money Smart" and remember to "Keep the Man Out Of Your Pocket." This is your "Tax Lady" Lorna Fleeks, and I'll see ya at the bank!

Langston Hughes clears Peter Pan for take-off

4th annual All-City Summer Musical booked at the Paramount Theater

The Langston Hughes Cultural Arts Center is planning, once again, to unleash the exuberance and creative energy of over 60 multi-cultural youth for this upcoming All-City Summer Musical. This year a cast ranging in ages from 8 to 18 will perform in Peter Pan-- *Parents Just Don't Understand. Free tickets for the August 16th & 17th production will be available August 1st at all Rite Aid TicketMaster locations.

Participating youth are completely immersed in the "theatre experience" as the production is prepared for its opening at the Paramount Theater (911 Pine St.). They learn everything from stage lighting and building sets to character development and costume design. It's important to note that at least one third of the cast and crew come from low-income or "at-risk" families.

While the Langston Hughes production of Peter Pan remains true to the original, the music has been updated to provide a contemporary feel. And there is no doubt that this is the first version where Captain Hook has dread-locks and speaks with a native Jamaican accent.

This is truly a labor of love for co-directors Darcell Hubbard and Isiah Anderson. "It's amazing to watch the transformation that the kids go through," explains Hubbard. "They're not the same kids by the final performance. They've really grown and matured."

Louisiana finally comes to Seattle to visit Mother/Auntie Sarah Finister

Louisiana finally came to Seattle. The family of Mother (Auntie) Sarah Finister comes to visit. The nieces and great nieces of Mrs. Sarah Finister came to town to see their aunt only for a short time. Mrs. Finister, one of two of the oldest survivors of the William Collins Family of LA had the joy of being visited by her late sisters Jeanette Harrison and Eva Bowens, daughters and two of her great nieces Dorothy Gardner, daughter of Jeanette and Shirley Bowens, daughter of Eva with her two girls Tracy and Nakeisha Bowens. All enjoying each other. It's been a long time in the making, but there's a time for everything and this was a time for the Finister Family. Thanks Kevin Edwards for that down home singing at the Royal Club. It was Kevin's birthday and everyone that attended enjoyed themselves.

SFX and U.S. Women's Soccer Team To Partner For National Indoor Tour, Discovery Health Channel Named Title Sponsor

SFX Sports Group and SFX Family Entertainment announced today that they will conduct a post-Sydney 12-game women's indoor soccer tour featuring eligible members of the 2000 U.S. Olympic team, and members of the 1999 U.S. World Cup Team. The tour will include a December 13, 2000 date at Key Arena at Seattle Center. It was also announced today that 24-hour cable network Discovery Health Channel will be the title sponsor of the National Women's Soccer Challenge.

The Discovery Health Channel Women's Soccer Challenge will feature America's favorite players against a team of International all-stars to be chosen from various Olympic and national teams from around the world. The U.S. stars scheduled to compete include: Brandi Chastain, Joy Fawcett, Julie Foudy, Mia Hamm, Kristie Lilly, and Carla Overbeck, as well as some of the sport's newest marquee names.

The tour will kick off on October 20 at the First Union Spectrum in Philadelphia and conclude on December 15 at the Arena in San Jose.

"Women's soccer, and the players on this tour, have made a tremendous impact on the sporting landscape. We at SFX are very excited to bring these great athletes to fans around the country this fall," said Robert O'Connor, SFX Sports Group Events Division President. "We are delighted with the commitment and support of Discovery Health Channel as our title sponsor in this venture."

"As the leading provider of quality health information on television today, Discovery Health Channel is proud to be a part of this national tour," said John Ford, President, Discovery Health Channel. "These soccer players epitomize the importance of a balanced lifestyle and we're thrilled at the opportunity to share the arena with them."

Our Dental Teams Objective
All patients have good and bad bacteria in the oral cavity. It is our job to educate patients on how to prevent these bad bacteria from destroying bone, gums and teeth.
Our staff will review your health history, demonstrate the frequency and technique of brushing and flossing, and answer your questions in regard to asepsis and sterilization techniques.
After your comprehensive dental examination, a proposed treatment plan will be presented and fully explained in order for you to make an educated decision.

To educate our patients to maintain a Healthy and Natural Dental appearance

ENTERTAINMENT

National Black United Front presents: The Centennial Celebration of Our "Black National Anthem" James Weldon Johnson's "Lift Every Voice and Sing"

The Song that has become the anthem of Africa's Descendants in America.

This is a must-have CD for all collectors of fine music. This song is sung from schools to churches across this Nation and the Nations of the world. This CD personifies styles from acappella, instrumental, spoken word, classical, gospel, and rap to hip-hop. It widely spans the scope of music, and its magnetism draws you in. No matter what your musical forte', there is something here for you!
