Obituary

Ms. Jean Aughtry was born in Seattle, Washington, September 18, 1925 to George and Nellie Miller. She confessed Christ at an early age, uniting with First African Methodist Episcopal Church in Seattle, Washington, making it her home for eighty years.

She attended school in Seattle and received her education at Coleman Elementary School, Washington Middle School, Franklin High School and Edison Technical School.

Jean later met and married Chester W. Aughtry, Sr., in Seattle. From this union was born one daughter, Carolyn Brown, two sons: Chester W. Aughtry, Jr., and Michael Aughtry.

She leaves to celebrate her life, the father of her daughter, Carolyn Brown and sons: Chester W. Aughtry, Jr., Michael Aughtry. Nine grand children: Tracee D. Milsap, Kevin Brown, Kim Brown, Jay Bradford, Jason Aughtry, Taylor Brown, David Brown, Sarah Brown, Rene' Brown and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
