OFFICE OF THE MAYOR—CITY OF SEATTLE

Wes Uhlman, Mayor

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, many individuals have made substantial contributions to Seattle's Black community without receiving in return any notice or reward; and

WHEREAS, these men and women deserve the sincere gratitude of all Seattle residents for their unselfish dedication, working for the welfare of the community and the entire city; and

WHEREAS, the Medium Newspaper has selected March 8, 1975, as a special day to honor two citizens who have served the community with distinction during the past year; and

WHEREAS, the Martin Luther King Award and the Mahalia Jackson Award, the highest tributes to community service, will be presented as part of the Black Community Unsung Heroes Awards, and will go to the two individuals judged to have made the greatest contributions;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WES UHLMAN, Mayor of the City of Seattle, do hereby proclaim March 8, 1975, as "BLACK COMMUNITY UNSUNG HEROES DAY" in Seattle, and urge all citizens to recognize the wealth of unpublicized contributions made by many Black Seattleites to their community and city.
