must depend upon your patronage to make this possible.

LIBERTY BANK
of Seattle

First Quarter Report

MARCH 31, 1971

LIBERTY BANK OF SEATTLE HAS BEEN ORGANIZED BECAUSE:

1. The economical conditions in the area indicate a need for a commercial bank. National figures indicate that there is a bank for every 6000 people.

2. The population of 60,000 or more people in the area indicate favorable number of potential customers.

3. The bank will be ideally situated in a center surrounded by many stores at 24th and East Union.

Services will be incorporated to provide extra personal services in banking such as:

1. Checking accounts
2. Drive in window
3. Saving accounts
4. Business loans
5. Automobile loans
6. Consumer credit loans
7. Home improvement
8. Consumer credit loans
9. Christmas Club
10. Collections
11. Night Deposits
12. Utilities

CAPITALIZATION:

Capital Stock	$200,000
Surplus	$100,000
Undivided Profits . .	$100,000
