Seattle's Finest Guitar Man Passes
Samuel Lee Drain

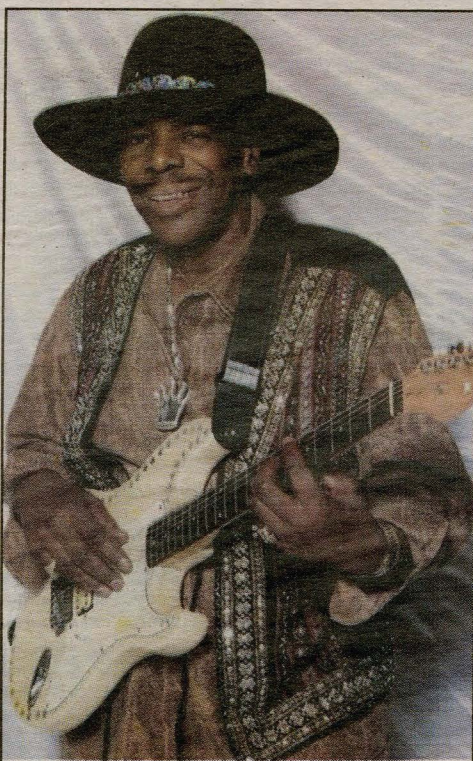

Samuel (Sammy) Lee Drain, born March 13, 1945, passed early Friday morning, July 22, 2016, amongst family & in the arms of his fiancé Dorita Jordan. Samuel fought a difficult and troublesome battle of colon, liver, and lung cancer. And he stood strong, as he refused to let anyone know how much he was suffering, even until his last day here. But, Sammy still made his guitar talk & sing until the very end. He never stopped amazing this world with his ability to help soothe and comfort us by playing his guitar, the keyboard, and the drums. (Thank You Baby, We Needed That!) Sammy had a great, big, comforting smile to go along with his huge heart that he loved to share so much with everybody. He also had a pleasant, deep, and mysterious voice that we all grew to love, and wanted more of while he was living his journey here on this earth. Preceding him home to The LORD was his father & mother, Andrew Drain Sr. & Carrie Drain, his siblings Andrew Jr. & Bertha Drain-Hawkins (& Stanley Hawkins Sr.). Left here on this earth to celebrate his Beautiful Daughter Tamara Drain, his ex-wife Gertie Drain & nephew Stanley Hawkins and son Stanley Hawkins Jr., Nephew K Lowe, Dear Friend James Smith And Dear Friend Rickey Tucker, & his many years, long time Lady Friend & Fiancé Dorita Jordan and his step son Quinton Jordan Sr. And MANY family members from Tennessee, Mississippi, and all over the south!
