Get ready for a finger-snapping, toe-tappin' evening as the music of Fats Waller takes you to jazz clubs of the Harlem Renaissance! This rowdy musical homage to songwriter Fats Waller encapsulates the mood of the era and the humor of his music. This performance sparkles with Waller's stance that life is a journey... for pleasure and play. You'll hear jazz classics like "I'm Gonna Sit Right Down and Write Myself a Letter," "Honeysuckle Rose," "I Can't Give You Anything but Love," and more!

In Loving Memory of Pauline (Washington) Seals

Pauline (Washington) Seals, 70, died Tuesday, January 13, 2015 at Swedish Medical Center in Seattle, WA. She was born on October 15, 1944 in Sparta, GA to William and Agnes (West) Washington but grew up on 23rd Avenue in Seattle and graduated from Garfield High School in 1962. Pauline served in the Army from 1973 to 1983 and went on to earn a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from Washington State University in 1990. Pauline worked for The Boeing Company from 1990 to 2010 in the Commercial Airplane Division. During that time she supported the 777 program in Manufacturing Research and Development, worked in Customer Services Division, Maintenance Ground Operations Systems, in Customer Training as an instructor, as an Introductory Support Field Service Representative in various countries, and spent 10 years in Germany as a Field Service Representative to Lufthansa and a Customer Service Representative to Hapag Lloyd. Pauline traveled extensively to various corners of the world including Brazil, Kenya, Singapore, the UAE and throughout Europe and the US. Pauline was particularly known for her energy, enthusiasm, friendliness, humor and warmth. She is survived by her brothers, Doug and William, her aunt, Daisy, two nieces, a nephew, many cousins, and a host of friends and loved ones. A reception to celebrate her life will be held at the Museum of Flight in Seattle, WA on March 6, 2015 from 5-8pm. In Loving Memory of E. Gladys Lockhart

E. Gladys "Durden" Lockhart
May 31, 1923 - February 13, 2015

E. Gladys was born and raised in Fayetteville, North Carolina to the union of Fannie Jane and Stewart Durden. She was the seventh of thirteen children. In 1941, she met and married warrant officer James E. Lockhart. They decided to settle in Seattle, WA where they opened an operated a dry cleaning business (Jim's Cleaners) for seventeen years and later a real estate business (Space Realty, Inc.) for twenty-three years.

E. Gladys was a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Central Area Senior Center, a lifetime member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Southeast Senior Center and a chartered member and Past Loyal Lady Ruler of Assembly #45, Order of the Golden Circle. She also joined the Queen of Sheba Chapter #12, Order of Eastern Star and served for two years as Illustrious Commandress of Beni Hassan Court #45, Daughters of Isis.

E. Gladys was preceded in death by her parents (Fannie Jane & Stewart), nine siblings, and her husband of 50 years (James E. Lockhart). Left to cherish her memory is her "brother-son" Jimmy Durden, two sisters: Ernestine "Tina" Williams and Virginia "Jenny" Thompson, and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

A viewing will be held from 2:00pm-7:00pm on Thursday, February 26, 2015, at Bonney Watson - Capitol Hill (1732 Broadway, Seattle, WA 98122). Funeral services will be held at 11:00am on Friday, February 27, 2015, at Mt. Zion Baptist Church (1634 19th Ave, Seattle WA 98122). An interment will be immediately following the funeral service at Evergreen Washelli (11111 Aurora Ave. N, Seattle WA 98133).

In Loving Memory of Lelia Bullock

On February 16, 2015 at 3:45pm, God picked a flower for His Heavenly garden.. Lelia Bullock, born October 17, 1927 in Mer Rouge, LA to the Union of Lloyd Davis and Carrie Davis Green. Lelia, known as "T Mama," was educated in Louisiana. She and her mother moved to Washington State in the 1950s, both working in the Bremerton Naval Ship Yard. Lelia's love for children took over her heart, and she worked as a housekeeper and care giver to three families: the Schallers (Jane, Robert, George and Margaret); the Goins (Jeremy and Jessica); the Chiots (Dan, Cindy, Claire and Laura), whose children she helped raise and nurture, all while helping her own mother raise foster children in their home. In this way, Lelia touched the lives of scores of children with her quiet, soft voice, and easy manner.

Lelia's love for God and her church gave her a conviction to always serve others; indeed, she had a serving spirit. Some of Lelia's servant roles were Church Secretary, Church Treasurer, Usher and Mothers' Board, to name a few.

Lelia had one brother, Alfred Davis, who preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory two sons, Elias Bullock (Gina) and Curtis R. Bullock; grandchildren Bryanna Lewis-Bullock, Brandon and Davonte Thornton, Curtis Bullock II, and Rakeya Wilson; great grandchildren Lyric Me'Anna Lewis-Bullock and Da'Vion Thornton; sisters Monica Walker-Jones and Debra Raub; aunt Dorothy Green; favorite niece Mikalah Jones; nephew Marcel Jones, and a host of great nieces and nephews, cousins, friends and church family.

Homegoing Celebration for: Mother Lelia Bullock will be Wednesday - February 25th, 2015 @ 11:00am. Services will be held @ the Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church - 2801 S Jackson St Seattle 98144

Viewing: Tuesday - Feb 24th - from 3-7pm @ Southwest Mortuary - 9021 Rainier Ave S - Seattle 98118

Dedication to Transformation

(Pt3)

Transformation consists of Change and Conversion. Many believe that these things are obtained by osmosis! We must make a conscious effort (walking after the Spirit) every single day, with every thought, decision, and action that comes our way. Transformation does not just happen! The Word tells us to "cast down imaginations, (reasoning, thoughts, or counsels against God) and every high thing that exalts (lift up) itself against the KNOWLEDGE of God, bringing into captivity EVERY THOUGHT into the OBEDIENCE (compliance, subjection) of Christ." In order to be able to do this you must FIRST know, and understand what the KNOWLEDGE of God consists of. Which is obtained through the Study and application of the Word, and executed by the POWER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT! See, you can scream, shout, proclaim, and call on HIS name; but ARE you REALLY IN THE GAME? Are you striving LAWFULLY? Are you DOERS and not HEARERS ONLY of the WORD? How can you successfully and confidently obey rules (principals) that you don't UNDERSTAND? Yeah, you may KNOW them but do you understand them? This is the difference between the MILK9Babes in Christ) and the MEAT (mature Believers, disciples) of God's word my Brothers and Sisters. You can inform someone of the rules of the game; but if they don't UNDERSTAND how can they participate, elevate, and graduate? You may KNOW the SCRIPITURES but if you don't UNDERSTAND them how can you successfully OBEY?

The African American Elders Program serves African-American elders in Central and Southeast Seattle and South King County. The program identifies frail, isolated and hard-to-serve African Americans and assists them in accessing and receiving needed social and health services through ongoing case management, support and referrals. The program identifies African Americans who are:

- 60 years and older •Chronically ill, frail, or disabled •Low-income or below poverty level
- Unable to obtain services or perform activities of daily living •Have one ADL deficit
- At risk of premature institutionalization •Lacking formal and informal support systems
- In need of multiple services in order to remain in their homes

The program is located in the Randolph Carter Family and Learning Center in Seattle. For a history of the program, visit www.seattle.gov/humanservices/aging.

CAYA

Central Area Youth Association

I've often wondered what the purpose of Black History Month is. As I look back over my years, I realize what it means. It's an opportunity to highlight the achievements of the past, give recognition to those who have accomplished great things, and to learn from leaders who have inspired others to go beyond their dream! CAYA salutes Black History Month and the progress that's being made by so many young people today! CAYA looks forward to continuing to be a part of the solution and the future!

U.S. Census Bureau News

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24, 2015 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- To commemorate and celebrate the contributions to our nation made by people of African descent, American historian Carter G. Woodson established Black History Week. The first celebration occurred on Feb. 12, 1926. For many years, the second week of February was set aside for this celebration to coincide with the birthdays of abolitionist/editor Frederick Douglass and Abraham Lincoln. In 1976, as part of the nation's bicentennial, the week was expanded into Black History Month. Each year, U.S. presidents proclaim February as National African-American History Month.

Note: The reference to the black population in this publication is to single-race blacks ("black alone") except in the first section on "Population." In that section the reference is to black alone or in combination with other races; a reference to respondents who said they were one race (black) or more than one race (black plus other races).

CENTRAL AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

DeCharlene Williams

"Thump" UP FOR ALL BLACK HISTORY EVENTS THAT ARE TAKEN PLACE! We would like to "thank" all the great people who came out to Central Chamber's emerging artist event that was held this pass week-end. Our event was a big success story for the kids, again this year, a large crowd of people came out from a very large cross-section of town, and I say thank you all for helping us make this Black History connection on the behalf of the Black Americans: who made the difference for us, as they left a legacy to be proud of!

The "Black American":: helped to build the "American" economic base which helped the "Untied States" to become the first country that the "world" is proud of! Without the work of the Black American people this country would be lost, as our lineage build American, "we must be proud of what our legacy is about! We are Black American people and we made the difference, because we worked and created things that made work easy so that we could survive. The work was very hard and yet we learned to be skilled at the work that was preformed, and today Our life goes on!

Getting back to my point of topic for today:

Last Saturday CACC (central chamber) hosted a very fruitful event whereas the children entertained us, they were excellent dancer, tap dancers, singers, and you name it they did it out of love for "their art" and the public received them well. In addition to the children the adult talent was awesome as well the say my name theme was awesome! Mr. Chris Daigre who is an excellent teacher pulled things together: Conley, Jerome Jackson, Charles C. Canada Special tribute for the legacy musicians Gray Hammond, Grace Holden, Robert Knott, Obverton Barry, Clarence Acox, Julian Prister, Ruby Bishop.

The guest speakers were R.Y. Woodhouse PHD, The famous Ms. Francis Carr, and Seattle's noble motivational speaker MS. Wynonna Hollin- Hauge.

MS. Jacqueline WEA and Jo Etta Bailey were the great chief of the evening they put be fore us a wonderful treat or should I say; display of food. I would live to thank the volunteer committee for standing with us to made things run smoothly: Jacqueline Wea, Linda Johnson, MS.Edna Daigre, Bernie Hack, Jacquelin Walsh Jones, JoEtta Bailey, Addie M. Jones, Ester Ervin, George Thomas, DeCharlene Williams. We appreciate ever positive thing that a person contribute to make this event happen.

We at the chamber give a very special thanks to MS. Edna Daigre for pulling our entertainment effects together, I reach out to here with my "HAPPY HAND": (smile). for a task well done. I am saying Best Wishes for all the participating artist who made the market place happen, whereas they reached out to the public and it was great and they had neat setups on display. and last I would like to say THANK YOU, THANK YOU for the donations we could not have done this with out you! The finance will continue to make things happen. Next week I will share information about our "Black I Irish event which takes place on: March 14,TH we will have lots more for the children to do.

Please Read 1st Peter and learn how peter's walk with Jesus went. please call me at 206 322 8296 if you have Irish Heritage connection. Thank you! thank you.! for your help.

"keep your thump up!

BE WELL WITH GAIL

I want to discuss a safety and health subject that may be avoided at times. This is about being careful of using sample and tester make-up in stores. Did you know many germs and bacteria collect on these items on a daily basis?? There may be 100's of people using these testers prior to you. They have discovered yeast, staph infections and other microscopic organisms on lipstick, eye make-up, powders and more. Another thing is as you are hurrying to sit down placing your purse or books on a public bathroom floor without thinking. This also is an area of concern no matter how clean the bathroom is. I love to share news of health and wellness on all levels. Feel free to send me note if you are enjoying this column. I'd love to hear from you.

Seventh Heaven: Seattle fans where given a bit of a respite this last weekend. Nestled in between spring training, the NFL combine was a basketball victory for the University of Washington Men's basketball (15-11, 4-10 Pac-12)team. If you wondering what the fuss is about regarding a U. Dub victory, try the fact that it was the teams first win after seven consecutive losses and the 87 to 84 win was on the road and came at the expense of who else but cross town rival Washington State(11-15,5-8). Andrew Andrews scored a career-high 35-point, and capped an unforgettable performance with a game-winning 3-point basket with 2.7 "Any time I shoot, I feel like all of them are going to drop," Andrews said after the game. While one game a season does not make, a win over their cross town rival on the road, can take some sting off a season that started so bright and dimmed in the blink of an eyes. With two away games(UCLA and USC) and two home games(Colorado and Utah) left, Washington could very well gain some much needed performance going into the Pac 12 Tournament(March 11th).

Broadway Center Produces Musical Homage to Harlem Renaissance!

Ain't Misbehavin': The Fats Waller Musical

Plays Tacoma, Edmonds, Bellingham and Olympia in March 2015

Five Pacific Northwest performers (including Tacoma's own Stephanie Anne Johnson) will "take the show on the road" this March, performing the Broadway Center-produced Ain't Misbehavin': The Fats Waller Musical in Tacoma, Edmonds, Bellingham and Olympia.

Ain't Misbehavin' is a musical revue originally performed on Broadway in 1978. Directed by Tyrone Brown, Broadway Center's production will transport audiences to the Roaring Twenties for a rowdy and evocative evening featuring the music of the Harlem Renaissance.

Director Tyrone Brown is a Seattle-based theatre director and producer. He is currently the artistic director of the Brownbox Theatre, a company dedicated to the creation of re-imagined Black theater. Musical director Darrius Willrich graduated from Cornish College of the Arts with a degree in jazz piano and is the creator of the label Critical Sun Recordings.

Choreographer Stanley Wesley Perryman toured the United States and the world as a principal dancer with the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater and Dance Theatre of Harlem between 1975 and 1983, then going on to tour with Lena Horne as a lead singer/dancer.

For more information and to purchase tickets for opening night of Ain't Misbehavin' at the Pantages Theater on March 7 at 7:30 p.m., please visit www.BroadwayCenter.org!
