OBITUARY

Noel Craven-Roby, 55, passed February 13, 2010 at his home in Roslyn, WA. Noel was born in Chicago, Illinois December 22, 1954 to Ethel Cravens-Roby and John H. Roby.

On October 29, 1959, 2 Months before Noel's 5th birthday, he and his mother were shot by his father and Noel was critically injured and not expected to live but, through God's love and mercy, he and his mother both lived. However, it changed Noel and his outlook on life. God knew this and took him unto himself and he is now resting in the bosom of the lord.

Noel attended schools in Seattle, WA and Ogden, Utah and received his GED in Seattle when he was 19.

Noel is survived by his mother Ethel Craven-Sweet, son Nicholas McCulloch, grandchildren twins Carma and Carizma McCulloch, stepson and stepdaughter Michael and Jennifer Phillips. He is also survived by brothers Keith Craven-Rice, Tracy Craven-Tyson-Sweet and Thomas Craven-Marshall, Big Tony, Little Tony, Russell and Monte Sweet; Sisters Glenda, Marie, April Sweet and Rochelle Pogue; Aunts Gertrude Craven-Hightower, Harriet Craven-Hawkins, Linda Lee Craven-Cornelius, Kanashibushan, Mary Hart-Cullens; Uncles Wesley (Velma), William (Virginia), and Nathaniel Craven; best friends Carl Borek and Larry Susich of Roslyn, WA and many relatives and friends.
