ORBITUARY

Charles Henry Fisher was Born on August 7, 1908 in Culver, Indiana. He was an only child born to the union of William and Mattie Fisher.

He attended West Virginia State University where he met and later married his loving wife of 68 years, Marie, who survives him.

They moved to Bremerton, WA. prior to W. W. II. Charles was employed at Puget Sound Naval Shipyard, and retired after 25 years, without missing a days work.

Charles Fisher was a quiet, soft spoken man with a passion and talent for creating beautiful woodwork and furniture from his basement workshop. He was an avid gardener that cultivated his yard into a beautiful botanical garden, where many small, wild animals and birds paid him regular visits at feeding time throughout the day. Charles will be missed by many.

He is survived by his wife Marie, one daughter Emily Fisher Heath, two grandsons Andrew Heath and Charles Heath.
