EPHESIANS 6:10

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might.

PROVERBS 3

Guidance for the Young

¹ My son, do not forget my law, But let your heart keep my commands; ² For length of days and long life And peace they will add to you. ³ Let not mercy and truth forsake you; Bind them around your neck, Write them on the tablet of your heart, ⁴ And so find favor and high esteem In the sight of God and man. ⁵ Trust in the LORD with all your heart, And lean not on your own understanding; ⁶ In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He shall direct your paths. ⁷ Do not be wise in your own eyes; Fear the LORD and depart from evil. ⁸ It will be health to your flesh, And strength to your bones. ⁹ Honor the LORD with your possessions, And with the firstfruits of all your increase; ¹⁰ So your barns will be filled with plenty, And your vats will overflow with new wine. ¹¹ My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD, Nor detest His correction; ¹² For whom the LORD loves He corrects, Just as a father the son in whom he delights. ¹³ Happy is the man who finds wisdom, And the man who gains understanding; ¹⁴ For her proceeds are better than the profits of silver, And her gain than fine gold. ¹⁵ She is more precious than rubies, And all the things you may desire cannot compare with her. ¹⁶ Length of days is in her right hand, In her left hand riches and honor. ¹⁷ Her ways are ways of pleasantness, And all her paths are peace. ¹⁸ She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her, And happy are all who retain her. ¹⁹ The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; By understanding He established the heavens; ²⁰ By His knowledge the depths were broken up, And clouds drop down the dew. ²¹ My son, let them not depart from your eyes— Keep sound wisdom and discretion; ²² So they will be life to your soul And grace to your neck. ²³ Then you will walk safely in your way, And your foot will not stumble. ²⁴ When you lie down, you will not be afraid; Yes, you will lie down and your sleep will be sweet. ²⁵ Do not be afraid of sudden terror, Nor of trouble from the wicked when it comes; ²⁶ For the LORD will be your confidence, And will keep your foot from being caught. ²⁷ Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, When it is in the power of your hand to do so. ²⁸ Do not say to your neighbor, “Go, and come back, And tomorrow I will give it,” When you have it with you. ²⁹ Do not devise evil against your neighbor, For he dwells by you for safety’s sake. ³⁰ Do not strive with a man without cause, If he has done you no harm. ³¹ Do not envy the oppressor, And choose none of his ways; ³² For the perverse person is an abomination to the LORD, but His secret counsel is with the upright. ³³ The curse of the LORD is on the house of the wicked, But He blesses the home of the just. ³⁴ Surely He scorns the scornful, But gives grace to the humble. ³⁵ The wise shall inherit glory, But shame shall be the legacy of fools.

IN CELEBRATION OF

Joseph Anthony Magee

AUGUST 3, 1963-JANUARY 17, 2007

Please share a fond memory or story
you have of Joseph.

Joseph Anthony Magee

Joseph Magee died suddenly of heart failure on January 16, 2007, at the age of 43, leaving behind countless friends and family that will deeply miss his dynamic enthusiasm and infectious smile.

Joseph Magee was President of Financial Capital, Inc. His knowledge, experience and leadership helped Financial Capital to expand and grow into one of the premiere mortgage banks in Northern California, with branches in the Pacific Northwest. Joseph had more than 20 years of mortgage banking experience, which included a specialization in commercial and residential finance. Joseph was also an entrepreneur and businessman in other various industries and with his wife, built a successful business with Univera Life Sciences.

In addition to business, Joe was a devoted husband and father who loved spending time with his family participating in sports, especially basketball, bicycling, snowboarding and water-skiing. As a dad, he coached basketball for the Boys and Girls Club of Redmond/Kirkland, and was a dedicated fan of his children's sports teams.

He was a member of The City Church in Kirkland and shared his faith boldly with many.

He will be remembered for his invaluable friendship, his seemingly endless energy and his radiant personality. Joseph was a very passionate man who loved God, loved his family, and loved to be around people.

He was preceded in death by his brother and best friend, John Michael Magee, in 1993. He is survived by his wife Ann, son Jonathan, and daughter Madelyn, along with his mother, Rainette Magee of Redmond, his father, John M. Magee of Wilkerson, WA, and his sister, Patrice Porter of Tacoma, and many nieces and nephews.
