

THE FACTS FEATURED FRONT PAGE NEWS

Little People's Christian Academy: Founder- Pastor Eula Clark

Pastor Eula P. Clark

The academy is located at 1517 Rainier Ave., South. Ages for attendance are from 12 months to 10 years of age. The academy was established June 11, 1991. Pastor Clark's Career: (1) Early Childhood Educational Department of MT. Zion for 19 years as Head Teacher, (2) Served as a bus monitor for Seattle Public Schools, (3) A YWCA tutor for children. -Pastor Eula Clark decided to become independent to acquire a business of her own. Academy means higher learning. She believes children should get the best education possible. The Little People's Academy will facilitate up to 22 children. Future goals are to develop a higher grade level and expand.

-Pastor Clark is presently searching for a larger facility, and also needs assistance with funding; hopefully from the surrounding community and churches. -Pastor Clark teaches the 4 and 4 year olds, preparing them for Kindergarten. The 10 year old age groups receive assistance with tutoring, and when they are not studying, they serve as assistant to the younger children, learning responsibility, and how to care for others. There are 4 adult staff members. -Mrs. Clark has 3 adult children, and 13 grandchildren. She has served as an Evangelist Minister for 30 years, and is the Pastor for the United Deliverance Temple, (serving for 13 years); and also oversees the Outreach Center. The Outreach Center assist with clothing, food and shelter for the needy. Pastor Clark is widely known throughout the City of Seattle for her devotion. All the children that have attended the academy have excelled academically. Pastor Clark is striving to become among one of the best qualified academics in the Northwest, with the help and support of the community and churches. Please take the time to stop in and view the academy. I'm sure you will find it a worthy cause. Writer: Caroline McNeal

Learn How to Change The Laws at Mothers' January Meeting

Did you ever think, "There oughta be a law" or "this is a terrible law, someone ought to change it"? That someone could be you. Do you believe that only "important people" or "leaders" can influence our lawmakers?

Not so, says Charles Davis, a professional lobbyist. Mr. Davis will be featured at the January meeting on Mothers Against Police Harassment, 7pm, Jan. 14th at Seattle Central Community College. He says that everyday people can have a tremendous impact on the state legislature, as well as the local councils. Often, the information that makes the greatest impression on lawmakers is the personal experience of citizens.

Mr. Davis will show you how you can change the laws. It is possible, he says, if you realize that it will probably take more than one year to reach your goal. Persistence is the most important factor in successful lobbying, he says.

The mission of MAPH is to educate and coordinate a network of parents and interested community members who will support the civil and human rights of our young adults and accountability for both police officers and the community.

Northwest Metal Arts On Display At North Art Gallery

A group of Northwest artists will show works done in metal Jan. 12 to Feb. 5 in the Gallery at North Seattle Community College.

Sculpture and jewelry will be featured in a wide variety of styles and techniques from traditional to abstract.

The show opens January 12 with opening receptions 1-3p.m. and again at 6-8p.m. Daily gallery hours are 11:30a.m. to 3:30p.m. and Wednesday and Thursday evening 5 to 8p.m. The gallery is located on the ground floor of the instructional center in the southeast corner of the building, next to the bookstore. Admission is free.

The Future World Leaders in Seattle

Everton A. Pryce

The Univ. of Wash. in Seattle is the proud host to eleven (11) Hubert H. Humphrey Fulbright Fellows, or Future World Leaders, drawn from eleven different countries in pursuit of different professional and academic interest. The H. H. Humphrey Fellowship Program is titled after the late V. P. -Hubert H. Humphrey, and was inaugurated in 1978. Accomplished professionals come from developing countries to the U. S. for one (1) year of academic and professional activities. It is funded by the U.S. Information Agency (USIA) and administered by the Institute of Education in Wash. D.C. The Humphrey Fellows program is highly competitive, and is designed to attract the best professionals in their fields. It is the most prestigious program offered by the U. S. govt. The focus is on individuals that will make a significant contribution to the future development of their country. The program provides a basis for building lasting ties between citizens of the U. S. and their professional counterparts in other countries. (The 11) Humphrey Fellows affiliated to the Grad. School of Public Affairs at the Univ. of Wash. are: (1) Joyce K. MWangi, Deputy Senior Probation Officer, Minister, of Home Affairs and National Heritage, Kenya, Africa. (2) Mujwahuzi H.M. Njunwa, Personnel and Admin. Manager, Tanzania Forestry Research Institute, Tanzania, Africa. (3) Salamon Ordonez, Head of the Inter-connected Sys. Division, The National Electricity Co. of Honduras, Honduras, Central America. (4) Eustaquio Vera Inglesias, Tech. Assist. to President of Board of Dir., National Admin. of Telecommunications, Uruguay, So. America. (5) Nighat Mehroze Christl, Deputy Dir., Export Promotion Bureau, Pakistan. (6) Ajit K. Krishnaswamy, Conservator of Forests, Ministry of Environment & Forest, India. (7) Everton A. Pryce, Special Advisor on Soc. Sec. & Welfare, Gov. of Jamaica, and Lecturer in Gov. and Politics in the Dept. of Gov., Univ. of the West Indies at Mona, Kingston, Jamaica. (8) Marcel P. Londt, Sr. Manager, Safeline Child Abuse Unit, Cape Town Mission Services, So. Africa. (9) Ju-a Chiu, Dir., Bureau of Social Affairs, Taipei County, Taiwan. (10) Nelson N. Kalanje, Principal Manpower Dev. Officer Ministry of Health, Malawi, Africa. (11) Zefanias S. Muhate, National Directory, Human Resources Dept., Ministry of Educ., Mozambique, Africa. For information on Mr. Everton Pryce and the Humphrey Fellows contact: The Graduate School of Public Affairs, Univ. of Wash. 208 Parrington Hall, DC-13, Seattle, WA. Phone (206) 543-4900. Writer: Caroline McNeal

Central Area Chamber News

Let's get acquainted with "Don Glenn". Who is Don Glenn? He is the Director of the Northwest Peace Concept Concerts. Don Glenn is a positive, force of energy who works with Rock music bands throughout the city of Seattle.

This year, Central Chamber will work with the Peace Concept for the Chamber's annual June-teenth Festival. We are signing up interested musicians right now. For information please contact Don Glenn at 789-5651 or call Ms. Althea McAfee at 325-2864.

Entertainers wanted and needed - Central Area Chamber's first Planning Meeting will be Monday, January 11, 1993 at 6:30 p.m., at Douglass-Truth Library.

Remember - We will need the entire community at large to help make this year's festival the Biggest and Best one ever! We will make History this year!!!! Any help you can give us will be greatly appreciated.

Thank You!
God Bless and a Happy New Year!

Scholarship for Senior High Students

The Education Department of the I.B.P.O.E. Elks of the World will host an open house, Sunday January 17, 1993 from 3-5pm at the Elks Cascade Lodge, located at 9116 Martin Luther King Jr. Way So., Seattle Washington, 98118.

The open house will inform high school students and parents how an Elk scholarship can be obtained by participating in an oratorical contest. Winner of the local contest will receive a trophy and cash, and will be eligible to compete at the state contest. The winner of the state contest will go on to the regional contest all expenses paid, and a $1600 scholarship. Winner of the regional contest where, another $1600 scholarship will be awarded. Currently 117 students have received scholarships five of whom are from our local area. Application deadline February 1, 1993.

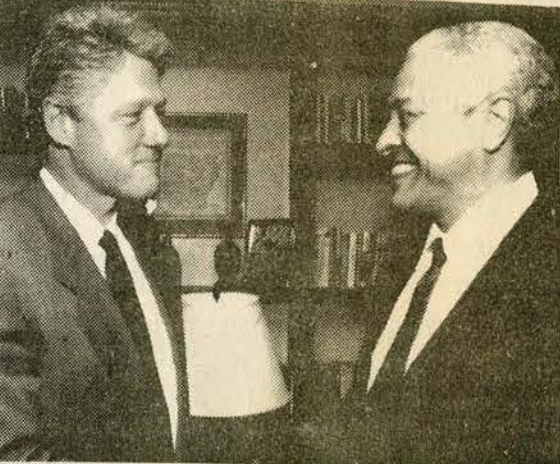

If you are interested please attend the open house and learn more about the scholarship. For further information call Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, Chairperson at 723-3311111, or Mrs. Ethel Lewis 725-6742, or you can write for an application to 9116 Martin Luther King Jr. Way So., Seattle, Washington, 98118

Keeping the Dream Alive:

Martin Luther King, Jr. quotation cards

Each set contains 24 5" by 2" cards, each with a different quotation and a picture of King. Suitable for school or parish group reflection, bookmarks, or personal prayer. To order: call JPC, 223-1138.

President-Elect Clinton Keeps Promise of Diversity in Appointments

Little Rock -- President-Elect Clinton, in keeping with his Campaign promise to create a government that "looks like America," has appointed a diverse group of senior administration officials. -- (eight women, two of who are African American; four African American males and two Hispanics.) round out this diversity.

Mr. Clinton, on election night, called one of America's greatest challenges, that of harnessing the strength of America's diversity "... to bring our people together as never before so that our diversity can be a source of strength in a world that is ever smaller, where everyone counts and everyone is a part of America's family."

The final appointments, announced on Christmas Eve, include: Federico Pena, Secretary of Transportation; Mike Espy, Secretary of Agriculture; Dr. Joycelyn Elders, U.S. Surgeon General; Zoe Baird, Attorney General; Mickey Kantor, U.S. Trade Representative; John W. Gibbons, Director, Office of Science and Technology and former Arizona Governor Bruce Babbitt, Secretary of Interior.

Earlier this month, Mr. Clinton announced these appointments: Lloyd Bentsen, Secretary of State; Roger Altman, Deputy Secretary of Treasury; Leon Panetta, Director, Office of Management and Budget; Alice Rivlin, Deputy Director of the Office of Management and Budget; Robert Rubin, Assistant to the President for Economic Policy; Robert Reich, Secretary of Labor; Laura Tyson, Chair, Council of Economic Advisers; Donna Shalala, Secretary of Health and Human Services; Carol Browner, Administrator, EPA; Ron Brown, Secretary of Commerce; Mack McLarty, White House Chief of Staff; Henry Cisneros, Secretary of HUD; Jesse Brown, Secretary of Veterans Affairs; Herschel Gover, Deputy Secretary, Veterans Affairs; Hazel O'Leary, Secretary of Energy; Richard W. Riley, Secretary of Education; Warren Christopher, Secretary of State; Dr. Clifton R. Wharton, Jr., Deputy Secretary of State; Les Aspin, Secretary of Defense; Anthony Lake, National Security Advisor; Samuel R. "Sandy" Berger, Deputy National Security Advisor; R. James Woolsey, Director CIA; Madeline K. Albright, UN Ambassador and William J. Crowe, Jr., Chair, President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board. Final approval of designees is contingent on Senate approval.

Presidential Inaugural Committee Picks Site For Inaugural Morning Concert and Ecumenical Prayer Service

Washington, DC - The presidential Inaugural Committee today officially announced Metropolitan A.M.E. Church in Washington, D.C., as the site for the inaugural morning concert and prayer service of President-elect Bill Clinton and Vice President-elect Al Gore. The concert and service will be held the morning of Wednesday, January 20, 1993.

In keeping with the Inaugural theme, "An American Reunion - New Beginnings, Renewed Hope", the 11 year old African Methodist Episcopal church located at 15th & M Streets, N.W. in the heart of downtown Washington, will be the first church of African American heritage to host a presidential inaugural prayer service.

Ronald H. Brown, Chairman of the 1993 Inaugural Committee, said, "The selection of African Methodist Episcopal Church underscores President-elect Clinton's rich history of involvement with African-American religious institutions. This historic and unprecedented decision not only continues with the theme of the Inaugural, but is also consistent with the President-elect's commitment to reach out to all Americans."

The Inaugural Prayer Service will include the family, friends, relatives and supporters of the Clintons and the Gores, along with a host of members of the clergy of all denominations and members of the A.M.E. Congregation.

Vietnam's Mekong Dedicated As Sri Chinmoy Peace Delta

(December 28, Mekong Delta, Vietnam) Site of the fiercest bombing and the most severe casualties of the Vietnam War, the Mekong Delta has now been dedicated to world peace as a Sri Chinmoy Peace Delta. The official ceremony took place Monday afternoon in Tanan and Foreign Relations Chief Do Hu'u Lam welcomed international peace ambassador Sri Chinmoy and 100 members of the Sri Chinmoy Peace Centres from all parts of the globe, including members of the Seattle Sri Chinmoy Centre.

Two permanent plaques mark the dedication of the 2.4 million acre agricultural heartland as a Sri Chinmoy Peace Delta. "Everybody knows that the fiercest battles were on our soil," stated Chairman Thanh. "We fought bravely, but at the same time we were longing for peace. Sri Chinmoy has contributed greatly to the cause of peace for humanity. That is why we appreciate your work and we greet you warmly."

Highlighting the fact that the Mekong Delta serves not only as a painful reminder of war, but also as a living monument to new life, Sri Chinmoy composed a song performed at the ceremony: "Mother Nature's moon-breath strangled and killed by death. Beauty's new born life and heart give Mekong the God-Start!"

The Mekong Delta now joins with over 500 "Sri Chinmoy Peace-Blossoms" in more than 30 nations that have been dedicated to the goals of world friendship and peace, including Niagara Falls, the Matterhorn in Switzerland, Lake Balkal in Russia, the cities of Ottawa, Canada and Philadelphia, USA, and the Svinnsund Bridge between Norway and Sweden. They offer daily reminders to millions worldwide of our common quest for peace. With the coming of the New Year, Sri Chinmoy's traditional message this year offers newness and hope. It is being sung worldwide,

"God is dreaming
Newness singing,
Oneness blossoming,
Fullness dancing

"Hope no more gropes.
Life without slopes,
Splendid depths and heights
Transform bondage-nights."

We merged with Washington Mutual in 1972.

Robert and Velma Henry

The Henrys merged with Washington Mutual when they moved to Seattle in 1972. They liked our interest rates and the convenience of one-stop banking. Since then, we've helped them with their time deposits and IRA and financed the remodeling of their home. The Henrys like Washington Mutual. And we like them. Because around here, taking care of people -- and not big business -- is what we're all about. Sound like your kind of bank? Then call Washington Mutual, the friend of the family,* at 1-800-562-3565. Merge with Washington Mutual.

FDIC Insured

Equal Housing Lender