Sammie Lee Gladney was born to Sammie and Mabel Coleman on November 18, 1921, in Houston, Texas. She was the younger of two children. Her sister, Blanche preceded her in death. At an early age she confessed her belief in Christ and was baptized at Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church. She was raised in Houston and attended the Houston Public Schools.

She was united in marriage with the late Roger Evans of Houston, Texas. Two children were born to this union, Roger Jr. And Clifton Earl. She later met Robert Gladney and they married in November, 1966. He preceded her in death November, 2002.

Sammie had two careers, working for Boeing and as a seamstress. As knowledge of her sewing skills grew she later attended Seattle Community College acquiring her Associated Arts Degree in Tailoring. She was a member of Mount Zion Baptist Church and the Order of Eastern Star, Rebekah Chapter No. 17.

Sammie departed this life on September 13, 2005. She leaves to celebrate her life, her sons, Roger Jr and Clifton (Paula); grandchildren, Roger III, Traci and Mark, Kelli (Bryant), Clifton Jr. Jason, Kimberly and Tanisha; great grandchildren, Krystal, Roger IV, Teschelle, Jalayah and Paris; cousin, Maude Brannon (Nathaniel, son and Ricky grandson); and many more extended family and friends.

A Season for Everything
To every thing there is a season, and a time
to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time
to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time
to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.
