BORN AGAIN

PEACE IN MY LIFE AS A MAN FOR THE FIRST TIME.

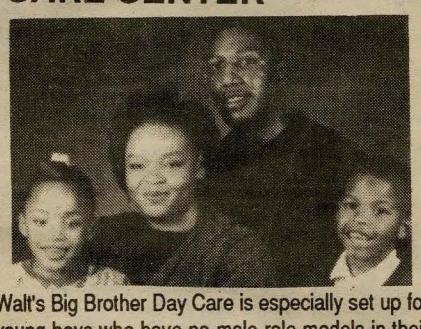

Lord your will, have your way, I pray that something I may say will help someone. My sisters and brothers in Christ know that you're not alone, nor have you been forgotten. Know that it's someone out there that knows how it feels to be down and almost out. Hurting and in pain, feeling like their is no hope and you have no one. Know that God is always with us, no matter what we are going through and what we have done. The God we serve is a just God. He won't do no more for me that he'll do for joy. 1 John 1:9, If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. I remember when Jesus Christ was dying on the cross for our sins and he cried out My God My God, why have you forsaken me? It was the first time that Jesus called out to God and He wouldn't answer him. It was because Jesus had the world of sin riding on his shoulder. I John 1:5 God is light and in him is no darkness at all. We must turn from our sinful and wicked ways my sisters and brothers, know that the word of God is meaningless and can have no affect on and in our lives until we reach the point in our lives when we are sick and tired of being sick and tired and just fed up with the old life, the old way of living. My God, my God, have mercy on me my Lord it has to be a better way. Fall down on your knees and shout loud as you can. Lord help me, Lord your will not mines. Lord, I'm willing, I'm ready to change. 1 John 4:4 Greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world resist the devil and he will flee, who ever may be going through things I allowed myself to go through for so long know that I'm someone who love and care about what you are going through. You name it, drugs, in and out of Jail, problems in my marriage, not being a provider for my kids and household. Hurting Mom and Dad and the rest of the loved ones. We must start thinking more of God greatest gift to us besides the gift of life, the choices we make, not the choice that seem right for the moment but how it may affect us later on down the line in our lives.

BIG BROTHER DAY CARE CENTER

Walt's Big Brother Day Care is especially set up for young boys who have no male role models in their lives. We believe whole heartedly that having a male provider in any day care is vital, not only just for boys, but for girls as well.Children need to recognize that men as well as women are capable of caring for their needs. It is time for men to step up in the community and contribute to the lives of our youth. Walt's Big Brother Day Care is attempting to do that.A male child with an absentee father is especially vulnerable. They need someone of their own gender to relate to.We have both male and female providers on staff to accommodate every child's needs. Walt's Big Brother Day Care goes out of our way to create a healthy self image in all children, regardless of race or circumstance.

To enroll with Big Brothers Day Care Center Call Walter or Joann Williams at 772-9322. We are located at 6010 - 120th St., Seattle, Wa. 98178. *Hours of operation are 6:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. *Rate: $375/month per child. Part-Time Care (2-4 hrs daily) $125/every two weeks. *State licensed *breakfast/hot lunches, snacks/dinner *ages 3-12 years old *activities & games * arts & crafts.

ISAAC HAYES TOURS CENTRAL AREA LEARNING PROGRAM

Singer Isaac Hayes and Rev. Alfreddie Johnson, founder of World Literacy Crusade, tutoring children at the Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church.

Sunday morning, while many other Bumbershoot artists were gearing up for their performances, Isaac Hayes could be found at the Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church and Garfield Center, sharing his life's experience and urging young people to reach for their dreams, by acquiring better learning skills. Mr. Hayes, in addition to being an award winning composer, musician and actor, has taken on the task of international spokesperson for the World Literacy Crusade, an organization formed in 1993 by Rev. Alfreddie Johnson in South Central Los Angeles, immediately following the LA Riots. The purpose of the program was to assist in reducing violence in the community by improving literacy rates.The Seattle learning program was one of 22 World Literacy Crusade programs which sprung up all over the world after the success of the Los Angeles effort. The Seattle program began as a grass-roots effort in the Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church and has since joined forces with the Parks Department's "Late Night" program. Learning skills are now being taught to central area youth at Garfield Center. Isaac Hayes himself is no stranger to this issue, having grown up in the inner city of Memphis, Tennessee. He is quite familiar with the problems of minorities in these areas. "There are a lot of people who are impoverished," he said, "but they don't have the opportunities and the bottom line is they don't have the tools with which to better themselves and improved their conditions. We've got violence, drugs, poverty, and illiteracy. I know all of these can be handled with the correct technology." That Technology is the basis of the World Literacy Crusade, which uses the Study Technology developed by author and humanitarian, L.Ron Hubbard. Through Mr. Hubbard's effective method of teaching individuals how to learn, hundreds of inner-city children and adults have regained their self-respect and are now leading productive lives. Both Mr. Hayes and Rev. Johnson, founder of the World Literacy Crusade in Los Angeles, toured the local Seattle programs Sunda, visiting with the youth and adults who currently participate in the program. If you would like to find out more about the program contact the Seattle Literacy Hotline at 781-4205.

STUDY COMPARES EFFECTIVENESS OF POPULAR BLOOD PRESSURE MEDICATIONS IN AFRICAN AMERICANS

High blood pressure (hypertension), which increases the risk for a heart attack, is a major health problem for African Americans. While approximately one in four Americans suffer from hypertension, the rate is one in three among African Americans. There are many effective blood-pressure-lowering medications available, but not all of them work equally well in all people. A new study, comparing three popular blood pressure lowering drugs, confirms that, among African Americans, some drugs work much better than others.

BEAUTY TALK

by Verna Beaver

Fall is the time to repair your skin and hair from the damage caused by the sun and the off schedule summer we enjoyed. Facial cleaners making having beautiful skin as easy as one, two, three...morning, noon and night. 1. A clean start. Wake up your skin with a cool water rinse. For a smoother, clearer, brighter complexion, use an enriched cleanser that contains glycerine. It cleans gently, allowing your face to have a healthy glow. 2. It used to be that skin moisturizers could be used all over the body, but in this era of ever more complex treatments, there is a good reason for not cross creaming. Alpha Hydroxy Acid body creams tend to be stronger than face creams because the skin is a bit tougher on the body. Body moisturizers are particularly effective for hands, feet, elbows, and knees. People with sensitive skin that breaks out at the slightest change of new creams, are better off using a facial cream on the body. The differences between moisturizers can be a question of cosmetic elegance. Eye creams are made thick so they don't run into the eyes. Daytime facial moisturizers are designed to leave a slick surface that eases makeup application. That slipperiness in a hand cream, however, could make it difficult to spread creams in other uncharted areas like the thighs and buttocks. 3. At the end of the day, indulge yourself with a luxurious and leisurely bath. Use a liquid bath soap with antibiotic (Dial) to help combat pollution and stress. Quality ingredients won't irritate sensitive skin. After your bath, spread on that sweet smelling cream and you'll have sweet dreams.

Why I'm Supporting Camille Monzon

By Seattle City Councilman John Manning

I'm supporting Camille Monzon for the 37th District House of Representatives because she was born and raised in the 37th District and knows the changing populations here.

As a City Councilman, I work with legislators in Olympia on city-raised issues. When Camille gets to Olympia, I know we will work together on matters facing the city and the 37th District. I know I can count on Camille to get things done.

Camille has raised more than $30 million for human services programs as Executive Director of the Seattle Indian Center.She has worked with all people, from both sides of the political aisle to get the job done. Camille will bring this expertise to Olympia.

Many of Camille's grandchildren are African American. Her large, extended family looks like the 37th District and includes Asians, American Indians and Alaska Natives, African Americans and Caucasians. Camille simply does not look at the color of one's skin. Instead, she looks at the potential and goodness in each of us. She knows that working together, we can make the 37th District the best it can be.

Please join me in voting for Camille Monzon next Tuesday. Camille is a breath of fresh air and will work for all the people of the 37th District.

A Relationship with Camille Monzon is a good Relationship for the 37th District

by Dee Anderson

On next Tuesday, September 17th, Please vote for Camille Monzon because she is the right person for the right time for the right reasons for our community. Why? Because of the relationships she has developed in her lifetime as a resident in the 37th Legislative District. First of all, Camille has a strong relationship with God the Father, with God the Son and with God the Holy Spirit. She is a person of extreme integrity who is not afraid to be guided by her spiritual convictions and values. Camille regularly visits and respects the worship services of the many churches and cultures in the 37th District. Next, Camille has a strong relationship with her family, which spans many cultures and racial groups. At her campaign kick-off, just a photo of her family members, who were present as her strongest support group, was a snapshot of the diversity of races and cultures in the 37th Legislative District. Camille's branches of extended family is so broad because she values the family institution as the fundamental strength of a community. Next, Camille has a strong relationship with her community as a resident and as a professional. As the Executive Director of the Seattle Indian Center, Camille has demonstrated the leadership it takes to get things done and to make things happen. Camille has a history and track record of meeting with a community and neighborhood residents before a crisis or controversy, because she has the keen sense and sensibility to know that a good relationship must be maintained through being accessible, keeping all communities talking to each other and keeping her word on commitments she makes. Camille has done this for me and I know she will do it for the 37th Legislative District as our State Representative. Camille Monzon understands the importance of relationships. Isn't it about time we had a good relationship? Vote for Camille Monzon on September 17th.

Paid for by the Committee to Elect Camille Monzon for 37th District

OFFER IN COMPROMISE, YOUR BEST ALTERNATIVE

BY LORNA M. WALKER
FINANCIAL TAX ACCOUNTANT
FORMER IRS TAX EXAMINER

INTERCONNECTIONS
"Reshaping Your Financial Future"
(206) 725-3937

Once again necessity behooves me to remind you my friends, about the help an Offer in Compromise provides and its obvious advantages to you. Over the week-end while working on my golf game, it was brought to my attention that you need a refresher on just what an Offer In Compromise really is, and what it can do for you, as some people are still curious about it's function. As I told to you in the past, it's a known fact, people are finding more and more financial problems in today's society than ever before. What with jobs scarce and financial responsibilities never ending. People are searching to find ways to alleviate the downward cycle of debt they may incur, and are finding hopeful relief from their tax indebtedness with a little known ruling from the Internal Revenue Service that allows the tax payer to clear up their tax liabilities with an Offer In Compromise. It allows the tax payer to make a lesser payment to the IRS than was originally demanded. Now it is only logical that the IRS wishes to clear up tax problems with its clients, and instead of chasing you down and demanding what they know you can't pay, a way has been devised by which you can make smaller payments to satisfy them and at that time end their harassment and put a stop to garnishment, halt or remove liens and save you the embarrassment of having your precious property taken away. Offer In Compromise not only stops the harassment and allows you to make a payment you can afford. It gives you the taxpayer, a "breather" from the fear that most often accompanies notice from the IRS when you are in debt with them. It also gives you a "Fresh Start" with the IRS. They can no longer call, threaten, or in any other way disrupt you life once this application is in effect. And all this is done by using the Internal Revenue 's own rules! So isn't it wise for you to look into Offer In Compromise when you owe more money to IRS than your situation can presently handle? This office specializes in Offer In Compromise, and promises to work to find the best solution for you and the most prodigious settlement possible. This year is proving to be quite a productive one for InterConnections and your continued patronage is appreciated. I'm saving you a lot of money, and I like doing it for you. Let's keep it that way. This is Lorna Walker, saying again, "Stay Money Wise and Money Smart" and always try to "Keep the Man Out Of Your Pocket." Till next time...

COMMUNITY POLICING ROUNDTABLES

The Seattle Police Department invites you to participate in one of fourteen citywide Community Policing Roundtables beginning the week of September 9, 1996.The purpose of the roundtables is to offer an opportunity for Seattle residents and business owners to participate in the design and implementation of police services in our city and to have the opportunity for input into the Department's five year strategic plan. By bringing the police and community together, these roundtables present a unique first opportunity to affect the way police services are delivered in Seattle. The roundtables will be held at scattered sites throughout the city. Each meeting will be three hours in length. Six of the roundtables will be on Saturday's from 9am to noon, while the other eight will be held once a week from September 11 to November 13, from 6:30 to 9:30pm on a week night. All Seattle residents, business owners, or community groups interested in participating may call the Crime Prevention Unit at 684-0159 to reserve a place at the roundtable of their choice. The purpose of the reservation is to ensure enough materials and staff support for each session. Information packets will be sent to confirm your reservation. Please see the enclosed list of dates and locations for the meeting closet to your neighborhood.

DR. CHARLIE WALKER APPOINTED GARFIELD PRINCIPAL

Superintendent John Stanford today announced the appointment of Dr. Charlie Walker III as the new principal of Garfield High School. He will begin his duties in the near future. "Dr. Walker is a great fit for Garfield High School," Stanford said. "I am delighted that we have been able to attract a person of Dr. Walker's experience and expertise to lead Garfield. We've selected a principal who has an excellent record of experience and will provide the strong leadership the Garfield community has come to expect." Stanford interviewed candidates Friday and Saturday after receiving ratings of their strengths and weaknesses from the School Site Council. Dr. Walker is currently director of federal and state magnet programs for the Tacoma School District. He also brings five years experience as a high school principal in the Tacoma District (Lincoln Magnet High School) and 10 years experience as assistant principal of Juanita High School in the Lake Washington School District. The new Garfield principal will be coming "home" to Seattle, where he resides. He taught for two years at Asa Mercer Middle School (1974-76) and served as vice principal of the then-Sharples Jr. High (1977-78) and Hamilton Middle School (1978-79). His most recent assignment in Seattle was as acting principal of Whitworth Elementary School (1979-80). "I eagerly await the opportunity to serve all students, staff, community members and parents at Garfield," Dr. Walker said. The new Garfield principal is president of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity - Zeta Pi Chapter in Seattle and was its Man of the Year in 1996. Dr. Walker was elected by students to speak at graduation for five years. He received Golden Acorn Awards from the PTSA in 1985 and 1995 and won the Seattle Times Humanitarian Award in 1975. Dr. Walker's Ed. D. in Educational Leadership is from Seattle University, from where he also received a master's degree in Educational Administration and a bachelor's degree in Education.

ROYALWEAR by Sharon

Sharon Corner is an accomplished fashion designer and dressmaker located in the Pacific Northwest area. In her own words, she tells her story..."In the beginning, self taught from the age of 12, I have been sewing and designing over 35 years. I helped design and construct costumes for entertainers on the Las Vegas strip and was one of the behind-the-scenes dressmakers for a gown designed for actress, Shirley McClain. I have worked 15 years in retail, assisting my former boss on a buying trip to Bali, Indonesia and I have also been involved with the designing of clothing for the store. After working retail and doing custom work, I decided to strike out on my own and I am rapidly becoming well known in the Seattle area. At present, Royalwear began as an ethnic hatwear venture. The line of hats were sold in retail shops and craft shows and fairs. The high demand for African attire for both men and women, as well as the skill and experience, I have in this area, has prompted Royalwear to include a full line of attire in addition to the headwear. Royalwear has steadily built a strong clientele base. With the continual emergence of ethnic influence in our culture, more and more people are finding a place for this style of clothing. Our marketing methods include fashion shows, arts and crafts fairs, retail, wholesale and consignment. My references include: Essence Magazine: One of the top ten contestants for "Fashion Northwest" (1995). Nordstrom: September, 1995, Royalwear was presented for two days in the downtown location during their "Salute Cultural Diversity" celebration. Washington Alliance of Black School Educators (WABSE)-March, 1995, Fashion Show and Luncheon. Seattle Art Museum-February, 1995, Fashion Show presented during Black History Month celebration. Numerous shows in the Pacific Northwest involving businesses, churches, women's groups and various organizations.
