Community Forums Every Tuesday Night at Knights Lounge

The Black Community is invited to come and speak your minds on issues pertinent to you, in the Greater Puget Sound Area, at community Forums that will be held every Tuesday from 7-9 p.m. The Forums will be held at the Knights Lounge, formally Empire Conference Center at 820 Martin Luther King Way So, starting Tuesday, January 3rd.

The Forums are entitled, "COMMUNITY FEEDBACK" and will be moderated by Writer/Community Activist Charlie James. The first topic of discussion will be the recent controversy between the Black Community and School Superintendent Donald Steel. Members of the Black Coalition for Education, as well as the Superintendent, will be invited to come and share their views on the issue.

Their will be a brief panel discussion which will be followed by questions and answers or comments from the audience. Garcia Massingale of the Knights Lounge commented on why the forums are being held, "I have always believed that it was important for the Community to have the opportunity to express their views on Key issues. We hear from the various leaders of the community but we don't have a way for the average citizen to make some direct input, or give some feedback. This is a chance for them, the silent majority, to speak out and we are looking forward to some very lively and informative sessions."

Everyone in the Greater Seattle Area are invited to come and express their views or share your concerns during "Community Feedback". For further information call Charlie James at 329-3771.

Jan. 14, 1984 to be Declared Martin Luther King, Jr. Day in Seattle!

A proclamation designating Saturday, January 14, 1984 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day in Seattle will be issued by Seattle May Charles M. Royer. The proclamation will provide city-wide official sanction to a full day of commemorative activities planned and hosted by the Region X Division of Blacks In Government (BIG), a nonprofit and nonpatisan corporation. The day's events are designed to honor and celebrate the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and acknowledge the theme, "Jobs, Peace, Freedom."

The January 14, 1984 Martin Luther King, Jr. birthday celebration will be attended and shared by persons from throughout Washington State and Region X jurisdiction, which also includes Oregon, Idaho and Alaska. There will be two major functions sponsored by the Region X Blacks In Government organization. The first event of the day will be a 1:00 p.m. Street Renaming Ceremony starting at Mt. Zion Baptist Church 19th & E. Madison, and ending at Martin Luther King, Jr. Way and E. Cherry Street, the site where the last-name-change sign will be installed.

Mr. Joe Black, Vice President-Special Markets, Greyhound Lines, Inc., Phoenix, Arizona. Featured guest speaker at Blacks In Government Martin Luther King Commemoration Banquet January 14, at the Westin Hotel.

Remember, community news of interest is exclusive in THE FACTS and you read it first.

The second event of the day will be the Martin Luther King, Jr. Commemoration Banquet at the Westin Hotel at 6:00 p.m. The banquet activities will include; hospitality, entertainment, dinner, featured speaker Mr. Joe Black, Vice-President-Special Markets, Greyhound Lines, Inc., a host of local, regional and national dignitaries and conclude with a disco sponsored by the Puget Sound Chapter of BIG.

Street Renaming Ceremony

A two year struggle to rename Empire Way Martin Luther King, Jr. Way ended December 1, 1983 when the nine-member Supreme Court ruled in favor of a renaming ordinance. The decision to change the name to honor Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was made unanimously by the City Council in June of 1982 and the name-change ordinance was signed by Mayor Charles Royer in July. The renaming process involved a considerable amount of negotiating; public hearings; a symbolic march; picketing, and finally, a law suit by disapproving merchants. During the long and sometimes bitter battle, numerous organizations were involved in the process. Specifically, the Coalition For Respect and the August 27th Committee that helped plan the March for commemorating the March on Washington, were instrumental in making the street renaming a public issue.

BLACK POETRY

I AM WRITER

My words are like a river.
They are flowing over
And
Down like a waterfall.
The world is at the bottom.
My river is spreading,
My river reaches everyone
and everything,
Every crack, every stone,
each grain of sand.
My river flows deep...It will touch every heart
And trickle wondrously
through every land.
My river cannot be seen
But
It manifests itself...It can be felt
But not touched
But within you...it touches...
My river is truth.
I am writer;
Truth comes through me
And not from me.
I am writer...I am history;
History comes through me
and from me.
I am thankful.
I am writer.
—Bro. Gary McFarlin

(The writer is but a vehicle, an instrument of truth's ongoing stream. This is the Black poet's thought.)

Black poets, who may wish exposure to our reading public, may send copies of their poetry—for editing and with permission to use—in groups of 12 poems or more to Black Resources, Inc., PH C, 410 Central Park West, New York, NY 10025. Poetry selected should normally appear within 12 to 20 weeks. Because of staff limitations, no copies are returned.

Pierce Voices Delight on His Selection for Martin Luther King, Jr. Award

Housing and Urban Development Secretary Samuel R. Pierce, Jr. today expressed delight at his selection to receive the Martin Luther Kings, Jr. Special Award from the organization headed by the late civil rights leader's widow, Coretta Scott King.

Mrs. King has notified Secretary Pierce that he had been chosen to receive the award from the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Nonviolent Social Change, Inc., at the group's annual Labor/Management/Government Social Responsibility Awards breakfast in Atlanta this coming January 13.

She said the award honors those who have made outstanding contributions to "enchancement of social justice and social responsibility in the tradition and spirit of Martin Luther King, Jr.," and to improving the working relationship among government, labor and management.

In a telegram to the Secretary, Mrs. King wrote, "I congratulate you on this achievement and recognition, for I understand the challenges which you have faced as HUD Secretary in providing for the development of our community and the housing needs of our people."

Secretary Pierce said he was "delighted to have been chosen for this award named after the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. King worked tirelessly for equal justice for all citizens, and his efforts remain an inspiration to millions of Americans."

The Secretary will speak at the Social Responsibility Seminar which will follow the awards breakfast, to be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Atlanta Hilton hotel.

IDENTIFYING THE CHURCH

Isiah Williams III
722-8627

THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT

The apostle Paul declared that the gospel is the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ (I Cor.15:1-5). The word "gospel" is a transiteration of the Greek word euangelion denoting good news concerning the kingdom of God and of the salvation for all that are in Christ Jesus. Therefore, in the New Testament, the basic facts of the gospel begins and ends with the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The gospel of Christ was given to, and, preached by the apostles (I Peter 1:12; Ephesians 1:12-13; I aThess. 2:13-14; II Thess. 1:7-9; II Cor.4:1-7). It was revealed and protected by the Holy Spirit (Eph.3:3-5; I Cor.2:6-10; John 15:26-27). Some of those who heard the apostles preach the gospel obeyed it (I Thess.2:13), others did not (Romans 10:16-17). Those who obeyed the word were saved from the consequences of their sins (spiritual death), and slavery (Romans 6:15-18). The "form of doctrine" of Romans 10:17 is the gospel of Christ, obedience to it is demonstrated in Acts chapter 2; commanded in Romans chapter 6, verses 1-4); following the hearing of the message a person either believes or not. It is impossible for a person to please God if they do not believe the basic principles of the gospel. That is called faith. Faith is not simply ascertaining to the facts of the gospel, but acting according to what is believed: "A firm conviction producing a full acknowledgement of God's revelation of truth; 2/. a personal surrender to Him, John 1:12." (Vines Expository Dictionary of The New Testament). In other words a person who believes in something will act accordingly. There is no such thing as "religion of the heart" and not of the head. If you believe that Jesus is who the Scriptures declare Him to be you obey Him. He said, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved." So, hearing, and believing is absolutely necessary to salvation (Romans 10:14). Next, the person must repent. That is, they must change mind about the way they are living for better. They must turn from sin and turn to God. Peter commanded it is Acts chapter 2. Confession is next, to be followed by baptism for the forgiveness of sin (Romans 10:10; 6:1-4). When this is done the Lord adds to the church. (Acts 2:1-47).

Stop excusing your life away.

Everyone has an excuse for not seeing their doctor about colorectal cancer. However, every year 52,000 men and women die of colorectal cancer in this country alone. Two out of three of these people might be saved by early detection and treatment. Two out of three.

So what is your excuse? Today you have a new, simple, practical way of providing your doctor with a stool specimen on which he can perform the guaiac test. This can detect signs of colorectal cancer in its early stages before symptoms appear. While two out of three people can be saved. Ask your doctor about a guaiac test, and stop excusing your life away.

CITY OF SEATTLE
NOTICE OF INTENT
CONSULTING SERVICES
SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT STUDY
POLICY AND DEVELOPMENT PLAN

The Seattle Engineering Department solicits letters of interest and resumes of experience from qualified solid waste management planning and development consultants. The contract is to assist in the preparation of the Solid Waste Management Study: Volume II: Policy and Development Plan for the Solid Waste Utility.

The policy and development plan is predominately policy analysis but will also include development of alternative sets of strategic plans. The information furnished to the consultant shall be in the form of program policy statements and needs from the City's solid waste program managers and other miscellaneous data necessary for planning, including critical time schedules for closure of the landfills and hauling to Cedar Hills.

The Consultant must have the ability and experience to analyze and determine adequacy of the information furnished in order to prepare the alternative strategic plans. Therefore, the Consultant must have a thorough knowledge of solid waste practices and complex policy analysis.

The Consultant must also have thorough knowledge of, and ability to utilize solid waste data for development of short range and long range elements of both capital and operating programs. The Consultant must be experienced in developing plans for implementation of comprehensive solid waste policies.

The preparation of the Policy and Development Plan will require approximately three to four months, and the Mayor and City Council review and amendment process may take an additional three months. The Consultant's involvement may or may not be for the entire period, depending on the availability of in-house personnel and City workload projections.

SCOPE OF WORK:

1. Documentation and analysis of current Seattle solid waste stream patterns.
2. Analysis of current solid waste policies, goals, and objectives.
3. Forecast and evaluation of future solid waste stream patterns.
4. Assist in development of future solid waste goals, objectives, and policies.
5. Propose and evaluate potential strategic solid waste management plans and improvements.
6. Documentation of methodologies and techniques .

The Engineering Department will use a two step process for selecting a consultant. The first step will evaluate all consultants submitting a Letter of Interest and select approximately three consultants to submit proposals.

The second step will evaluate consultant proposals and possibly conduct an interview prior to selection.

As part of the first step, all Letters of Interest submitted by consultants shall include brief statements dealing with the following evaluation criteria:

1. Expertise in evaluation of different policies to deal with solid waste issues.
2. Expertise in planning for the integration of waste reduct ion, recycling, composting, landfill operations and energy recovery (waste-to-energy) programs.
3. At least one team member has experience in corporate and/or strategic planning.
4. Demonstrated ability to meet tight time schedules and short turnaround times.
5. Knowledge of local government decision making process.
6. Knowledge of community concerns and public participation.
7. Past record of performance with Seattle or other governmental agencies.
8. Office in the Seattle Metropolitan area.
9. Identify team make-up to comply with Women and Minority Business Enterprise (WMBE) requirements. WMBE's must be precertified by the Seattle Human Rights Department prior to December 30, 1983.

Length of the Letter of Interest should be limited to three (3) pages with brochures and examples pertaining to Solid Waste Management Studies attached.

Compliance with City of Seattle and State of Washington licensing and registration laws, and with City of Seattle Ordinance 109113, as amended, will be a requirement in consultant selection. The consultant will be required to utilize women's business enterprises for at least 3 percent of the contract costs, and minority business enterprises for at least 15 percent of the contract costs.

Approximately three consultants will be selected as qualifying from all those responding and shall be sent a Request for Proposal, detailed Scope of Work, rating criteria to be used for final selection and may be interviewed by the Consultant Evaluation Committee for this project.

This consultant contract is estimated to be between $20,000 and $30,000 with the time of performance expected to be between February and June of 1984. Letters of Interest must be received by the DIRECTOR OF ENGINEERING, 910 Municipal Building, Seattle, Washington 98104 by December 30, 1983.

MANN'S Bits and Pieces

by DAVE MANN

Sports Editor

Three games - that's all it takes, just a three game winning streak. The Seattle Seahawks travel to Miami this weekend to engage the Miami Dolphins in a fun game of Football. After pulling the welcome mat from under the Denver Broncos last Saturday afternoon in the Kingdom, the local football team is beginning to rate national attention. Don't think for a minute that Don Shula and the Dolphins aren't taking the Seahawks seriously. After last Saturday's game Coach Shula stated that he and his staff had planned their game plan to meet Seattle, and not Denver. The Seahawks annihilation of Denver last week was perhaps the greatest game that the team had ever played. The flawless second half saw the Seahawks offense and defense completely dominate the Bronco team. Curt Warner was majestic with his 99 yards, and quarterback Kneig played the best game of his short career. Praise should be given to the Seahawks offensive line. Even without injured Reggie McKenzie, his replacement Edwin Bailey played a great game in opening up holes for Curt Warner. Kenny Easley played as if it was the first game of the Season; Michael Jackson was all over the field; John Harris and Dave Brown played perhaps their best game as professionals; Dave Kneig going 12 - 13 was unstoppable. The men in the trenches fought it out with a much bigger and experience Denver team. The Seahawks showed once again that turnovers will kill you. They turned two turnovers by Denver into Seahawks touchdown.....The Basketball scene, again Philadelphia and Boston are leading things in the East with New York playing good ball and only 4½ games out. Milwaukee, Atlanta and Detroit are fighting hard for dominance in the Central Division. Suprising Utah is leading Dallas by 2½ games in the Midwest Division. Portland and L.A. are up one day and down the next, as they show that they are the class of the Pacific Division. The also runs are Golden State, Seattle, Phoeniz and San Diego. Prediction - look for the Huskies to beat Penn State 27-21. The different in this ALOHA BOWL Classic will be the passing of V.W's Steve Pelluer. The Huskies are 8-3 overall and Penn State is 7-4-1 overall. Basketball — the Sonics will have to change their offensive thrust if they are going to make hay on this home stand. The Sonics have lost two games at home during this home stand and can't afford to lose anymore game at home. This week-end they lead for the cold road again and you know how chilly it is out there.....David Thompson, where are you? and what are you going to do? It's my opinion that the Sonics will eventually sign D't and trade him just to get some compensation from their investment.

Happy New Year everyone and a beautiful 1984!

"Lottery Deposits Top $100 Million"

Lottery Director Robert Boyd presented State Treasurer Robert S. O'Brien a "symbolic" check for $100 million representing the Lottery's total contributions to date to the state's General Fund. The Lottery makes daily deposits to the State Treasury.

"We are pleased to have reached this goal. We want to thank the players and supporters of the Washington State Lottery for making this possible," said Boyd.

By statute, a minimum of 40 percent of lottery-generated revenues must be deposited into the General Fund. Education receives the largest share of General Fund monies (61.3 percent), with human resource programs (25.4 percent) and other state programs and agencies receiving the balance.

"Our contributions to the General Fund far exceed the projections made for a state our size," continued Boyd, "and we are pleased to be ranked No.1 in instant ticket sales among the 17 other lottery states and Washington, D.C."

The Lottery expects to be the second largest non-tax revenue source to the state in the 1983-1985 biennium, with projected deposits of $183.2 million during that time.

A Report To The People

by ISAIAH EDWARDS

This is True:

Is our President being honest with us when he says, that he really wants Peace?

Peace is an attribute of God, and only through Him can it be found, for He is the gateway to Peace! Our Nation was founded upon the principles and the teachings of our belief in God. Being such, we should ever be mindful to place at the helm of our government man whose backgrounds not embraces this concept.

Every times we have chosen a leader whose characters is contrary to this belief, our nation has suffered untold misery and great distress. Ex-President Carter, was a christian man who had compassion, and sensitivity for the problems of the poor, minorities, the disadvantaged, the unemployed, and the aged. He brought peace to Egypt and Israel. He completed the SALT negotiation; and stabilized our relationship with the People's Republic of China. This he accomplished without provocating or intimidating a single foreign power; and he with Anwar Sadat of Egypt lead the governments of the world on a rendezvous in search of Peace.

But, not so at this Yule-tide, for the man in the White House with trillions of dollars of military arms and nuclear build-up, has created hysteria from the frontiers of the Soviet Union, to the sand-domes of Central, and South America. Our Nation, though powerful as it may be, must not demand PEACE! from the muzzle of a necular missle. We've got to stop intimidating and provocating other nations if we want Peace. PEACE—initiates from a contrite heart, carring on of a dialogue of common understanding; not the exemplification of diplomacy, and not without the essence of the immutable grace of God. This is the path to Peace. Our Nation must pursue Mr. President, if we are honest about our pursuit of Peace. "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God." (Matt.5:9).

May God be good to all of you throughout the New Year.

Isaiah and Marie Edwards.

And Until Then, This is True. Will see you next week.

THE NEW YEAR AND WAYS TO MAKE IT HAPPY

There are certain basic things that each of us must do to assure that our New Year is happy. First, among these basics, it seems, is the realization and acknowledgement that we are not Omnipotent, or that there is a Power greater than all human power. Next, we must realize and acknowledge that this Omnipotence provides the resources, the strength, the knowledge, the health and ultimate happiness that each of us may eventually claim. Possessing these basics, many of the facilitating details of living will follow automatically. However, we would deceive ourselves by merely developing laid-back attitudes and believing that everything will automatically fall into place without any positive initiatives on our part to assure that those things we seek actually occur. While this Omnipotent Power is not about to permit the destruction of the magnificant people and world through Nuclear conflict, for example, we earthly creatures must still labor to prevent such destruction.

Therefore, our continued protests and demonstrations against Nuclear confrontations will be necessary until leaders on all sides of current issues have come together in lasting agreement to have Nuclear weapons remain silent. Should our current leaders prove to be too arrogant or insensetive to this obvious advice, then, it will rest with us to change that leadership. Never mind the fact that we control the factors on only one side of the issues, those on other sides of the issues are controlled by the same Omnipotent Powers, and will of necessity be controlled.

What are our job, some may ask? To them we reply, that our job is to remain positive about mankind in general and the world in particular. In spite of man's periodic inhumanity to man, and the limited damage some people have been permitted to do, the world remains as sound today as it was when it was first created. However, there always was, and always will be room for its refinement and maturity of its people. Such, of course, accounts for our various talents, strengths, resources and knowledge, which by the grace of the Omnipotent, we individually possess.

Of such Omnipotence I was never more convinced than last evening with the preappearance, after twenty five years of a marvelous friend from a little town in Louisiana whom I had no right or hope of ever seeing again. Yet, there she was, standing there within the reach of my arms, in every way as beautiful, warm, youthful-looking, petite, vibrant and vivacious as when I had last seen her so many years ago. I was indeed witnessing a Miracle of which only an Omnipotent Power was capable, and for which I approach the coming New Year with extreme optomism and prospects for happiness. A great year is ahead for us all.

Stay with Us.

THE YEAR IN REVIEW: 1983 EVENTS WILL GO DOWN AS MILESTONE

The year has gone by so quickly it is hard to even think of the many events that have taken place. On the local scene, Empire Way was finally changed to Martin Luther King, Jr. Way! It was a 16 months battle with up and down court appeals.....A very cold December made headlines in Washington, temperatures went down to 18 degrees. Ice and snow made driving difficult, but compared to the midwest Seattle comes in last for bad weather conditions.

It was not a bad year for the Seahawks who with coach Chuck Knox made it to the playoffs for the first time in its 8th year history. Another reason for the success is Penn State All-Star, Curt Warner.

The most painful remembrance of 1983 was the killing of U.S. Marines in Lebanon and Grenada. Over 200 young men gave their lives, many thought the price was too high that Reagan made the wrong move.

Jesse Jackson pondered on whether he should become a candidate for Presidency. Jackson was told that if he have run he would probably lose, and if he have not,"you guaranteed to lose" - what a choice.....Sally Ride became the first woman in space when she rode the space shuttle but few remember the first Black astronaut who rode the space Challenger. It seems that Ride got more of the media attention. ....I'm sure, you heard of James Watt? Well, the former Secretary of the Interior made harsh remarks regarding Blacks and handicapped people. Watt's job was on the line soon after.

In the world of sports, Martina Navratlova has become a tennis ace winning her fourth Wimbledon title this past year. This making her the top-seeded woman tennis player.

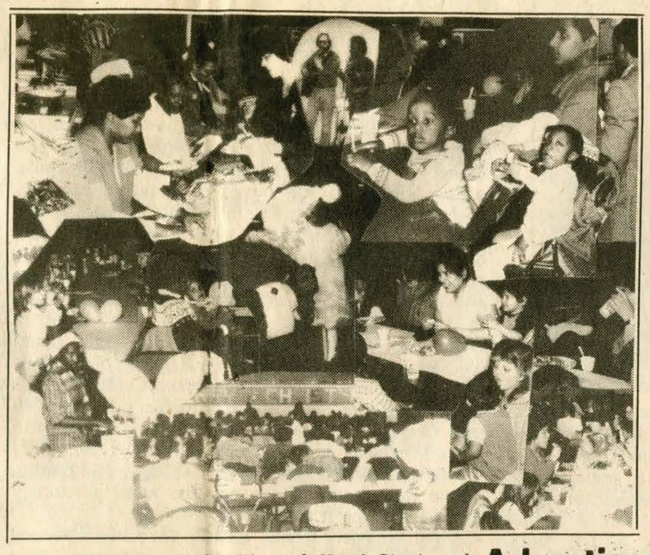

As for television, it was a big disappointment. Most of the TV shows have been cancelled for the season. The disappointments were many, but there is one show worth mentioning. There is a medical drama on NBC called St. Elsewhere, that is well worth the time.

I did not even skim the surface of the past year but those which are mentioning do stand out in my mind. Frankly, it is difficult to choose what is important and what is not to be considered.

May God Bless each and every one of you on the year 1984 and for many years to come.

Thank you for your support.

Head Start Christmas Program

On Dec.19th, the families of Head Start and Day Care Programs enjoyed a delightful holiday event at the Carrousel Roller Rink. In spite of the weather there were over 400 people in attendance.

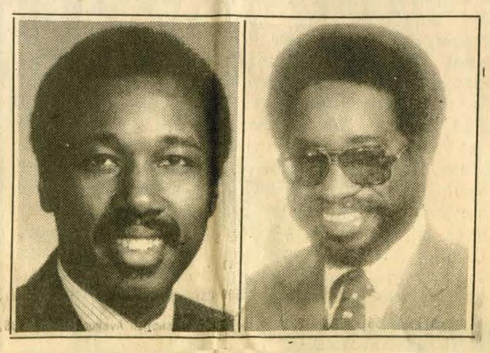

Dressed as Santa Claus, Councilman Sam Smith was the highlight of the evening. Other activities included a spaghetti dinner, entertainment by Dino the Clown, and christmas carols.

Dorothy Hollingsworth, Director of Family & Youth Services would like to thank the Community Business, Staff, Head Start Agencies, Child Care Centers and Parents for making this holiday season a merry event.

NEW Adult Medical Clinic To Open In Columbia City

In January 1984 Seattle will welcome two new Black doctors to the community. John H. Vassall, M.D., and Rayburn S. Lewis, M.D., will open their medical offices at 5220 Rainier Avenue South in Columbia City.

Dr. Vassall was born in Brooklyn, New York, and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Bacteriology at the University of Winsconsin. He came to Seattle in 1972 to do graduate research in Virology, and received a Master's degree in 1974. Dr. Lewis was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and educated at Purdue and the University of Michigan. He came to Seattle in 1974 to attend medical school. While in medical school at the University of Washington, both doctors were active in the Student National Medical Association, an organization for Black and minority medical students, and they became good friends. It was during medical school that they first began talking about working together someday.

During medical school, Dr. Vassall was able to broaden his clinical experience by doing hospital assignments in Tuskeegee, Alabama, Pocatello, Idaho, and Lincolnshire, England. After earning the Doctor of Medicine degree, he moved to Atlanta where he studied Internal Medicine at Grady Memorial Hospital. He established a private medical practice and taught at the Morehouse School of Medicine before deciding to make Seattle his home. In 1981, Dr. Vassall took and passed the difficult certifying examination given throughout the United States and in several foreign countries by the prestigious American Board of Internal Medicine. Only 4 out of every 10 physicians who took that exam were able to score a passing grade. Dr. Vassall practiced at Group Health Cooperative until starting his private practice in Seattle.

Dr. Lewis joined the resident physician staff at the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital after finishing medical school. He did his internship and a year of residency before taking a two-year "vacation" from Internal Medicine. During that two-year period, he joined the regular hospital physician staff and studied Orthopaedic Surgery and Emergency Medicine. Because of his clinical excellence, Dr. Lewis was made Chief Resident in Medicine.

Both doctors are committed to improve the quality of care to all people, regardless of race, creed, color, or economical condition. As a reflection of that committment both doctors are actively involved with clinics which serve poor and low income patients. Dr. Lewis is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Yesler Terrace Clinic, and Dr. Vassall is President of the Board of Directors of the Carolyn Downs Community Health Services Center. Both are also members of the Washington State Association of Black Providers of Health Care.

If you are in need of a physician, you may call Dr. Lewis or Dr. Vassall at 721-5553. They are specialists in the diagnosis and treatment of diseases in adults. If you are a medical receptionist, medical assistant, or nurse with at least one year experience in front office work, a full-time or part-time position in the office may be available. You may submit your resume to either doctor at: 5220 Rainier Avenue South, Seattle, WA 98118.

SOCIAL CORRELATIONS—RINKY DINK

Forces in society are trying to make a statement about the significance of single-parent families. It has been thrown around that 51% of households in the United States are single-parent families headed by women with children. Did the Governor issue some sort of plan to the fact that budget cuts are only going to sustain single-parent families? In the same budget plan did you notice an increase in funds for jails?

Funds for single-parent families have generally meant being regulated to stay home and raise children with minimal resources. Do children raised with minimal resources make up a spawning arena to justify more funds for jails. Horrendously, a large percentage of inmates come from single-parent families.

More funds for jails equates to more jobs for the professional leeches—lawyers, judges, secretaries, court reporters, construction workers, custodians, medical workers, etc.

Since there has been a growing trend of single-parent families, intellectuals have been motivated to designate more funds for jails to house the predicted problems of "a future need for more jail space" rather than alot funds for whatever it takes to keep the majority of the people out of jail.

What would it take to protect unknowing poverty-stricken or helpless citizens from the long-range jurisdiction of the justice system. How about a child rights law with clout—something to the effect that when professionals say if this kid does not get help or change, the kid is headed for trouble. Trouble usually means a youth center or jail. If pros are smart enough to make these kind of early predictions, then somebody is smart enough to figure out the intervention of positive support.

Support could be mandatory and support services should be required to give the appropriate necessary help—food, medical, dental, safety, arts, education, couseling, household modification or reinforcement.

NEWS Of Education

Computer training will be part of many urban high school programs, thanks to a five million dollar grant.

A recent $5 million grant for 1,000 computers for America's inner-city high schools is expected to narrow the "computer gap" between rich and poor school districts.

The grant was made by the Xerox Corporation to the National Urban League. In making the announcement, David T. Kearns, president and chief executive officer of Xerox and the League's newly-elected chairman, stressed the importance of the ability to use a computer for most jobs in the future.

"Electronic literacy," said Kearns, "will be necessary to do most every job in the future." He pointed out that most of the 130,000 computers currently in the public school system are in well-to-do districts. More than half of the poorest schools have no computers.

Kearns emphasized that the grant be used for academic programs, not just for vocational training.

"The ability to use a computer should help kids do their job—the computer should not necessarily become their job," he added.

Guidelines for the grant specify that the schools selected be in major urban centers, have large minority populations and show a financial need.

The computers to be used in the grant will be the Xerox 820-II desktop moddels, introduced last year as a personal computer system for offices.

A committee representing Xerox, the League and the education community will select the schools to receive the grant computers. Their placement will begin in 1984.

Kearns told the Urban League: "I believe today's black children are the seed crop for what could be the most successful generation of blacks ever, because they are part of the electronic age—an age of unprecedented opportunity for people with the right training."

For questions/answers concerning prescription drug abuse and treatment, call Therapeutic Health Services at 587-6545.

I would like to devote this column to information on some valuable substance abuse services currently being provided to students in the Southeast schools. These services are emanating from the Seattle King County, Department of Public Health, through the Columbia City Health Center, and include the following professional benefits:

1. Drug Education: Classes to students; in-services to teaching staff; and PTSA meetings with parents. This educational aspect also offers the "Here's Looking At You Two" drug and alcohol curriculum, as well as the "Impact". The "Impact" is a training which focuses on intervention and prevention. Classes so far have been given at Beacon Hill, Rainier View, Columbia, Withwarth, Maple, Asa Merce, Southshore and Franklin.

2. Assessment and Referral: These benefits are directed toward students who are assessed as possibly suffering alconol/drug problems. The Center has a cooperative, working relationship with various treatment agencies, youth service bureaus and school staff.

3. Home Visits: Home visits are available to any student residing in South Seattle, and offer full assessment of student needs and environment. This also serves to coordinate care between the school, community and home.

Karey Yashihara, a Public Health Nurse employed by the County, is the key person providing the above services. Karey may be contacted by calling the Columbia City Health Center at 587-4650.

EXPLORE SEATTLE WITH THE KIDS
By: Sharon J. Collman
County Extension Agent

For a change of pace from TV and video games take yourself and the kids on an excursion into the world of nature and science.

Burke Museum on the University of Washington campus features exhibits on volcanoes, people of other lands, butterflies and many, many other fascinating topics. When I was growing up in Seattle, the highlight of the museum to me was the Egyptian mummy, now it's the insects. Call 543-5590 for more information. Admission is free.

Sience Circus at the Seattle Center is a special event held between Christmas and New Years (December 26-January 2). This year wild animals are featured. There will be wolves from the Olympic Game Farm, an insect zoo, 4-H animal projects, indian crafts and folk stories, computer center, lazarium and touch-and-do exhibits. Admission is $3.00 for kids and seniors; $4.00 for adults.

Woodland Park Zoo is a great afternoon experience. Bundle up and walk through the park, visit the animals, or find shelter—from bad weather inside the animal house. Small admission fee.

Valunteer Park Conservatory always has great displays of seasonal plants, tropical trees, shrubs and many other plants. Admission if free. Art lovers can visit the Art Museum a block away.

Other Seattle and King County Parks are great places to walk and play. Many have swings and other playground equipment and paths for exploring. It's surprising how many people don't even know they live near a little park.

Grab the kids or a friend and get outside for a change of pace. Drive, bus or walk and explore for the fun of it.

HAPPY NEW YEAR'S

As the new year fast approaches, many are contemplating on beginning weight reduction programs after the first of the year. It is good to make these kind of plans. However, the stickness of the glue is another matter. It is impossible to correct in a short while what has become a lifelong pattern. Maintaining good health is a way of life, not a destination. Therefore, concentrate on changing bad eating habits this coming year, and enjoy good health.

God Bless you, keep you and make the coming year be prosperous.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE AT THE CENTRAL AREA SENIOR CENTER.... THURSDAY NIGHT AT 7:30 by Fleecie Jordan

The Xmas Party of the Le Etta King Bridge Club was held Thursday, Dec. 21st. and in spite of the gaity and revelry, we did play BRIDGE! Jim Motin directed a Howell Movement and the results are as follows: 1. Braxton Price - Jim Motin; 2. Octavia Jackson - Al Walker; 3. Cecelia Holmes - Carolyn Benning.

We shall take a few days off, and return January 5th, so mark your calendars accordingly.

Our benefit bridge sessions at the Westin Hotel on Sunday, Dec.18th, produced nineteen tables in support of the United Negro College Fund. Jim Motin was Director in Charge, assisted by Herb Jackson. At the conclusion of the game, Marion Sutherland, who is General Chair of the LOU RAWLS PARADE OF STARS for our area thanked everyone for supporting the event and reminded us to pledge additional cash support during the telethon, Dec.29th, 1983 on King 5 TV, 7:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m.

Gertrude Peoples, who arranged the Bridge Game, also thanked everyone for coming out and helping. We have had a wonderful year and we made much progress; for that, we thank all who supported throughout the year. We would also like to thank Mr. Fitzgerald Beaver, publisher of the FACTS Newspaper for giving us such wonderful coverage during the entire year.

Happy New Year! See You January 5th!

In a recent survey the results showed THE FACTS Newspaper as the number one weekly with more community news than any other weekly in Seattle!

Odia Coates: from Vegas to Seattle.....

ODIA COATES

A capsulized version of Odia's early career will reveal that around 1968 she landed her first professional gig while moonlighting as a secretary in the San Francisco Bay Area. Later she became lead vocalist with Brotherly Love, which payed Vegas and the Bay Area. She stayed with that group a few years, learning her craft by singing rock and r&b before joining the Sisters Love with her old friend Merry Calyton. Then she parted to try a solo career, a move which lead to her introduction to Anka via their mutual friend, Edwin Hawkins.

On their initial hit, "Having My Baby," only Paul's name appeared on the label. It was all part of a plan, according to Paul, who speculated that, "If we didn't put her name on the label, everyone would ask—'who's the girl?'" If that was the plan, it worked. By the time the follow-up, "One Man Woman, One Woman Man" was released and Odia's name did appear on the record, she was already identified as a veteran of one of the biggest hits on the year.

ODIA COATES: The lady with the great name and the talent to match it. Although she has already been praised as she shared the Anka spotlight in such notable Las Vegas resorts as Caesars Palace, and the MGM Grand Hotels, as well as such far ranging places as Japan, Europe, The Caribbean, Canada, and throughout the United States, entertaining fans that were also becoming familiar with Odia's credits as a recording artist.

Odia is now at the juncture of something new, and in many ways her road is just beginning.

Rainier Bank Offers 4-Year Tuition Scholarships

Rainier Bancorporation is offering six full-tuition, four-year scholarships to graduates or graduating seniors of Washington state high schools.

Granted annually, the Rainier scholarships are awarded on the basis of merit, said Kumi Kilburn, assistant vice president and manager of corporate contributions.

Applicants must plan to major or minor in business, economics or finance, combined with a liberal arts curriculum at an accredited Washington community college, college or university.

Kilburn said the scholarship program is one way for Rainier to invest in the future. "The entire business community, including Rainier, has a stake in creating educational opportunities for today's young people," she said.

A unique aspect of this program is that two of the six scholarships are awarded to women and two to minorities, according to Kilburn.

This is the fifth year Rainier has offered scholarships, which today can be worth up to $25,000 each. One year's tuition at a Washington private school is more than $6,000, while state funded institutions cost about $1,000 a year.

Applications are available at high school or college counseling offices throughout the state and at all Rainier Bank, Rainier Credit, Rainier Mortgage and Rainier Leasing Company offices. All applications must be postmarked by March 1, 1984.

Chicago Resident Visits The Northwest

Ninety-year old Mrs. Pauline Lawson Hamilton boarded her first flight from Chicago, Illinois, to Seattle, WA, to spend the Xmas holiday in the home of her grandson Mr. & Mrs. August A. La Strappe, where the four generations were present. Mr. La Strappe says, "What a Xmas!" His Grandmother who was born in the 'horse and buggy' days loved him so much that she would take her first flight even after saying, all her life that she would never fly. Mrs. Hamilton is a native Texan where she spent most of her life as a school teacher in Montgomery, Texas, for forty years. Now, she is living in Chicago, Ill., with her youngest daughter, Mrs. Doris Dunson. Mrs. Hamilton was accompanied by her granddaughter Mrs. Pauline La Strappe Barnes and her two daughters. Mrs. Barnes is the sister of Mr. La Strappe.

A Bountiful New Year!

George Orwell's 1984 Is Here!

by Makel Spencer

Many people in their late twenties and plus struggled through their high school English classes reading a scientific novel written by an English writer named George Orwell. The name of that literary novel is "1984". Those of us who read the novel as required reading, probably thought ther untinkable would never become the thinkable. Yes! George Orwell's big brother is among us in the form of the computer. The police will be robots—soon to come. People are becoming expendable. In the future, many people will work right in their own homes as opposed to the eight hours at a job site. Leisure time will become more of a common place happenstance. Most of us will experience this great transformation within our own life time. Much of the painful metamorphosis is occuring right now. Everyday never and more advance technology is invented. Those who refuse to accept the new technology are discovering it to be overwhelming.

Until recently, many people have been bogged down with just trying to make ends meet. This past Christmas proved otherwise. There is still money to be made and spent. Not all Americans have suffered from a sharp increase in the cost of living. Only poor people have experienced a nightmare, meaning—for many Americans, people are seeing their lives deteriorate. A dollar today is practically worthless, unless you are a millionaire plus. Since we live in an age of high technology; people are learning that they must live as if they were commodities of it. It is mandatory that people become information oriented. Everybody should not panic nor rush out and try to become computer experts. The earth is still in desperate need of qualified social scientists. However, parents should encourage their children as well as themselves to develop a math and science mental cognizance.

1983 is history. 1984 is reality. If we are to survive and prosper we must learn to live and deal with "big brother," (the computer). George Orwell was 100 percent right in his literary predictions. During the past year all Americans of all colors and skin hues have lived through hard times. Ronald Reagan is not the root cause of our problems. Many of the problems confronting most people are caused primarily by ourselves. We must learn to accept responsibility for our own actions. Much of what happens to many of us could be circumvented if we exercise constructive insight in our future plannings. It is my firm belief that Ronald Reagan has brought most people out from among the living dead. We are in essence alive. Since we are alive we must prepare for hard times and always be aware that the inevitable could become the evitable. Nobody lives on a perpetual silver platter. It is smart thinking to be aware that those who are on the top will one day come down to the bottom. Every flower which blooms will eventually die.

We have survived 1983 and its aftermath. Many people among us have made resolutions for 1984. If you can adhere to them—right! Wise people don't make resolutions. It is best to make a few realistic plans and deal with life as best we can. Remember! We are living in an age of high technology. Being information oriented should be our prime concern during the forthcoming year. As intelligient thinking people, only you know what you must do in order to put your life on the path of prosperity. Good luck! and a bountiful New Year's from all of us at the Northwest Facts Newspaper.
