OBITUARY

Without warning, Death plucked a precious flower from our garden on November 21, 1980 and took our loving daughter, Mother, sister, grandmother, aunt and friend from our midst on to heaven for her reward.

She was born on December 19, 1925 in Roslyn, Washington to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Craven. She attended school in Roslyn and Cle Elum.

She accepted Christ at an early age and was a faithful follower all the rest of her days.

Beulah was united in Holy Matrimony with William Edward Hart on February 28, 1940. To this union was born a daughter and three sons.

They made their home in Roslyn until moving to Seattle, Washington in 1955. On January 31, 1970 the Master called William home. Beulah made her home in Seattle until 1977 when she moved to Roslyn to be with her mother.

Aunt Boo, as she was widely known, was loved and highly respected by all in the community. She spread Hope, Faith and Love to all she met, wherever she went. Her Christian Spirit shall remain forever in each of our hearts.

Beulah, leaves to cherish her memories a daughter, Beulah Mae Grimm; three sons, Edward Cecil Hart, Theodore David Hart, James Van Hart, Seattle, WA; a daughter-inlaw, Osceola Hart; a son-inlaw, Glenn Grimm; eleven grandchildren, Penny Hart, Anita Hart, Casey Hart, Tamara Grimm, Bryan Grimm, Randy Hart, Shakira Hart, William Hart, Antonio Hart, Danetta Hart, Darius Hart; Mother, Mrs. Ethel F.
